MEDIATORS REACH CRUX OF PROBLEM

Selection of Provisional President for Mexico.

THE MAN OF THE HOUR

Task Before the South American Envoys is No Easy One—Choice Must Suit Mexican Factions and Others.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 13.—The crux of the Mexican problem, the selection of a man for provisional president acceptable to all factions in Mexico and foreign governments generally, was reached today in a conference between the mediators and the American and Mexican delegates.

For more than an hour suggestions from various individuals were discussed, but on none was there a semblance of agreement. Tomorrow there will be another conference on the same subject. Details of the peace plan are practically set aside now for the greater task of finding the man of the hour—if he can reconcile the warring factions and maintain peace while a constitutional election is held and normal order is resumed.

Incidentally, Gen. Carranza's note transmitted by Rafael Zubaran, his representative in Washington, arrived today advising the mediators that Constitutionalist delegates were on their way to the mediation conference with full instructions.

The mediators made no comment on the note. It contains no reference to an armistice, on which the mediators have been insisting and there was nothing to show that the mediators had in any way altered their determination reached yesterday not to admit officially the representatives of Gen. Carranza unless an armistice was declared. Some other way of dealing with them, perhaps through the American delegates, may be found when they arrive.

They Are Needed.

The Constitutionalist representatives are needed here to facilitate the course of the peace programme in its present stages for in the discussion of names they can be of much service to mediation generally by indicating who will or will not be acceptable.

At present the mediators have accomplished only one step in their journey toward the pacification of Mexico. This was the adoption yesterday of the first protocol dealing with the transfer of authority from the hands of the present regime to a new provisional government. Today's discussion of the second protocol defining the composition of the new government, its form and personnel was discussed by the American and Mexican delegates in an informal talk with the mediators. No agreement was reached on the phraseology of this plank in the peace plan, but it is considered most likely that it will set forth that the new government shall consist of a provisional president and four cabinet ministers comprising the portfolios of foreign affairs, finance, war and interior.

Discussion has continued about the type of man for the provisional presidency, the Mexican delegates claiming that he shall be neutral in the sense of not being identified with any political faction and the United States insisting that he shall be of Constitutionalist sympathies so far as to pacify that element, but neutral and fair in his dealings with all. It practically has been resolved to abandon generalities about types and search for the man whom all would accept.

It can be stated on the highest authority that the American delegates at no time have suggested the name of Gen. Villa or Gen. Carranza and that they never intend to do so. They think some one whom the Constitutionalists will trust should be placed in power, but don't themselves favor a man who is so violently partisan that he might be guided by prejudices in the performance of his functions.

No Suggestions Made.

The American delegates have not yet suggested all the names which they think might be considered, but today's discussion showed them that Mexicans of prominence who have been active in the Constitutionalist party will meet with serious opposition from the Huerta delegates. There are no indications that an agreement will be reached on the provisional president for many days at least, although there is likely to be an early agreement on the organization and form of the new government. Various plans are before the mediators, a commission of five with one executive, a junta de Gobierno or council of three and a provisional president and four cabinet ministers.

The last will be insisted on by the Mexicans as more nearly in conformity with that provided by the Mexican constitution. The American delegates realize the importance of form in this connection and will probably offer no objection to that kind of an administration. The Mexican delegates received during the day the formal answer of the United States to their inquiry concerning the embargo on arms by sea. The American government declared its regret that the Antilla, by a misunderstanding, should have obtained clearance papers which permitted it to land arms at Tampico for the Constitutionalists, but called attention to the strict orders which now are in effect prohibiting all exportations of arms to Mexico.

Nashville, Tenn., June 13.—Two wind storms swept into Tennessee about 5 o'clock this afternoon from Kentucky. Reports indicate that one stor moriginated around Bowling Green and moved on to Gallatin, Tenn. No damage was done so far as can be learned. The second storm came rom Earlington, Ky., and destroyed all wires between Earlington and Hendersonville, Tenn.

STEAMERS COLLIDE IN BROAD ATLANTIC

American Liner New York is Rammed by Pretoria.

NO ONE WAS INJURED

Hole Torn in New York's Side Thirty-two Feet Long and Twelve Feet High, Fifteen Feet Above the Water Line.

On Board Steamship New York, via Siasconsett, Mass., June 13.—While the American liner New York, westbound, was motionless in a heavy fog four hundred miles east of Ambrose lightship early today the Hamburg-American liner Pretoria, bound east, ran into her and ripped a hole 12 feet high and 32 feet long in her port side.

The hole is flush with the main deck and is 15 feet above the water line. So great was the force of the collision that the Pretoria's anchor was torn from her bow and was left hanging inside the gap that had been torn in the New York. Practically all of the passengers on both ships were asleep.

Immediately after the collision the engines of both ships were ordered full speed astern and passengers came hurrying to the decks. The passengers of the New York were able to reach over and touch the bow of the Pretoria as she pulled away from her dangerous position.

There was no panic. Captain Roberts and Chief Officer Turner were both on the bridge at the time of the collision. They reassured the frightened passengers, many of whom hurried to the starboard side o fthe ship anticipating a list to port. Members of the crew also went among the passengers and urged them to be calm.

New York Was Motionless.

Upon the orders of Captain Roberts the bulkheads of the New York were closed at 12:52 o'clock this morning because of the density of the fog. This was about ten minutes before the collision. During this period the Pretoria replied constantly to fog sirenes blown by the New York.

Captain Roberts blew two long blasts repeatedly for five minutes prior to the collision. These whistles indicated that the New York had stopped. Suddenly there was a crash, succeeded by a sharp tearing sound as the steel plates and woodwork of the New York were shattered by the Pretoria's sharp bow.

Fortunately the watch which occupied the quarters behind that part of the ship which was crushed in, was on duty in the stoke hole. Had the collision occurred while this watch was off duty a number of lives probably would have been lost. The Pretoria was less dameged by the collision than the New York. Several of the plates at her bow were sprung and twisted.

The passengers refused to return to their cabins until daylight. After it was determined that no serious damage had been done to either of the ships they proceeded on their way.

OFFER QUARTERS FOR NEW RESERVE BANKS

Real Estate Men in All Districts Are Busy.

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and Comptroller of the Currency Williams, However, Can Do Nothing for Them.

Washington, June 13.—Secretary McAdoo and Comptroller of the Currency Williams had before them today hundreds of letters from real estate agents and property owners in Federal Reserve Bank cities, offering quarters suitable for the 12 Federal Reserve banks soon to be organized. In many cases sites were offered for buildings to be erected by the government.

The same reply has been made to all such offers. The Treasury Department and members of the Federal Reserve Bank Organization committee have absolutely nothing to do with the provision of banking quarters for the new institutions. Local directors will have control of all detail work. While the Federal Reserve Board will supervise the operation of the Federal Reserve banks, they will not really be Federal oanks in the ownership sense. All stock in the Federal Reserve banks will be owned by member banks located in the various reserve districts and the directors of the reserve banks will all be residents of the various districts.

The five active members of the Federal Reserve board and the staff they employ at the Treasury Department in Washington are the only persons on Federal pay rolls who will have a part in the operation of the 12 new banks. Each bank will pay its own employes and handle its affairs quite as independently of government interference as the ordinary National bank.

If buildings be erected for the new banks the work will be undertaken by the local directors and financed by the individual banks.

As soon as directors are elected for the 12 new banks the organization committee will refer to them all communications concerning quarters, merely for their information.

TOWN IS UNDER ARMS

Mayor of City Thrown from Second Story Window When He Attempted to Stop Rioting—Safe to be Dynamited.

Butte, Mont., June 13.—Rioting incident to a revolt of 2,000 Union men against the orders of their organization, continued tonight despite the armed rule set over the city after a series of riots during the celebration of Miners' Union Day.

All saloons were closed and hardware stores were cleared of arms and ammunition by the police while extra guards were stationed throughout the city.

When order seemed to be restored with darkness and the extra precautions against further violence, a crowd of miners surrounded by the police started to pull the safe of the Western Federation of Miners down Main street to keep it out of the hands of rioters. Four hundred men took the safe from the Federation members and the police guard put it on a wagon and carted it away and announced they were going to dynamite it.

The trouble began when a parade started in celebration of the establishment of a union. More than 2,000 men disgruntled by heavy assessments, refused to recognize the Western Federation of Miners any longer. Under the leadership of organizers of the Industrial Workers of the World, the secuers attacked the parade composed of more than half the labor bodies of Butte.

The parade was broken up and speaking exercises in a theatre were abandoned because of stormy street scenes. Then the rioters moved on Union hall in the center of the city. Every piece of furniture in the building was demolished and thrown into the streets.

Thrown from Window.

Acting Mayor Frank Curran, a Socialist, appealed to the rioters to disperse. He was thrown from a second story window to the pavement and removed to a hospital severely injured.

Ten thousand persons watched the demonstration. Policemen and sheriff's deputies were powerless. Chief of Police Murphy sent out officers to close all saloons. Half a dozen saloon keepers who refused to obey were taken to jail.

While the riot was at its height, Alderman Charles Lane made a demand on the acting mayor that he ask the governor for troops. The county commissioners hastily assembled and authorized Sheriff Driscoll to swear in as many deputies as were needed to control the situation.

Several hundred miners refused to march today in a parade in celebration of Miners' Union Day. Their re-

WILSON HAS GLORIOUS BIG DAY AT PRINCETON

'Tommy' Drills Miles Through Dust With Alumni

Follows in Wake of Big Brass Band Along With Thousands of Others on Return Visit to Their Alma Mater.

Princeton, N. J., June 13.—With President Wilson, "Tommy" Wilson, '79, as the hero of the occasion, Princeton's greatest alumni in years was celebrated here today. From all parts of the country Princeton graduates flocked to welcome their most distinguished alumnus and former president.

The President was cheered, serenaded, shaken by the hand and lionized generally. He entered completely into the spirit of the occasion and behaved like any other alumnus back at his alma mater.

The climax of the celebration came with the parade of the alumni, several thousand strong, from the campus to the baseball field to see Princeton play Yale. Yale won 3 to 0. The President walked nearly a mile along dusty roads behind a blaring band and beneath a hot sun, but all the way his face was wreathed in smiles for the march was a continuous ovation for him. He circled the field once with the parade and then went to his section.

As the parade started P. W. Miller, of Philadelphia, one of the marshals of the '79 class, shouted to the President:

"Keep step there, 'Tommy.'"

"Certainly, I'll obey orders today," replied the President.

During the day the President managed to shake hands with several policemen and other townspeople.

SHERMAN LAW NOT MEANT FOR LABOR

Webb Exempts Farmers and Labor Unions

IN PUBLIC STATEMENT

North Carolina Representative Gives Official Version of the Bill Which is Now Pending Before the Senate—Court Ruling.

Washington, June 13.—There is not a provision in the anti-trust bill which can be tortured into meaning that violence, coercion or intimidation are authorized or countenanced," said Representative Webb, of North Carolina, chairman of the House Judiciary committee, in a statement today regarding the House Omnibus Trust bill now pending in the Senate. He gave the official version of the development of the labor exemption clause.

"The framers of the Sherman law," Representative Webb said, "never intended to place labor organizations and farmers' organizations under the ban of that law. The existence of a labor or farmers' union never has been unlawful and is not unlawful today, but it was desired to place in the statutory law of the country a recognition of the rights of these organizations to exist and carry out their lawful purposes.

"After the original section, seven of the antitrust bill was drawn, certain representatives of labor contended that the section did not give labor all it was entitled to. Finally, we agreed to add to what we already had provided in the labor plank as adopted in the Baltimore Democratic convention that such organizations, orders or associations or their members should not be held illegal combinations in restraint of trade under the anti-trust laws. This added nothing material, but seemed a pretty good compromise proposition.

"This does not give labor, farmers or fraternal organizations any more than they are entitled to under the law today, nor any more than the Federal courts throughout the country have held them entitled to. This provision will protect them from dissolution under the anti-trust laws, but does not protect them from penalties for violating the criminal laws of the country."

DREAM OF GOLDEN AGE IS RUDELY SHATTERED

Serious Revolution Narrowly Averted in Italy

Arrival of Government Troops in Province of Ravenna on Eve of General Railroad Strike Puts Check to Move.

Rome, June 13.—Dreams of a golden age, with the high cost of living ended, are doomed to be shattered in the villages and towns of the province of Ravenna with the arrival tomorrow of ten thousand troops and the news that the proposed national railway strike has been abandoned, and order is being restored, even in the districts where a virtual revolutionary movement was in progress.

The attempt of anarchists Republicans and Socialists to deal a death blow to monarchial institutions, was frustrated because of the refusal of the railway men to bring about a strike which would virtually have paralyzed the forces of the government.

The troops now are completely in confrol of the main centers of the insurrection. Train service has not been interrupted to any great exten, although many of the provinces still are infested with revolutionists who are destroying the railroad tracks, stations and bridges and damaging public buildings.

The entire situation has improved greatly during the past 24 hours. Many workmen are engaged in the repair of railway tracks and telegraph and telephone lines at Ancona, center of the revolutionary district.

The task confronting the troops has been an exceedingly difficult one, owing to the fact that they had been ordered not o use their arms except under circumstances of dire necessity.

Ignorant masses in the affected district ,seeing that the inhabitants of the small towns had been armed by the Republican committees, gained the impression that any form of violence would be permitted. Churches and clubs were sacked and burned, but in the case of private residences, the revolutionists asked the owners' permission before taking possession. Then these were sold for next to nothing to give the poorer classes the impression that the "republic" would carry out its pledge to bring back the "Golden Age," and end worthwith the high cost of living.

News that an Italian republic had been proclaimed in several towns bordering on the Adriatic. In places like Fabriano and Rimini scenes similar to those of the French revolution were enacted. Mislead by representatives from anarchistic headquarters at Ancona that the monarchy had been overthrown, inhabitants proclaimed a republic and replaced the national flag

SERIOUS ERUPTION OF MOUNT LASSEN

California Crater Grows More Violent Daily

ASHES FALL FAR AWAY

Large Stones Thrown Thousands of Feet in the Air. Falling a Quarter of a Mile of More Away. Explorations.

Mineral, Cal., June 13.—Sulphur fumes and volcanic ash appeared today in the fifth and most violent eruption of Mount Lassen since the snow-clad peak broke out on May 30th. For the first time ashes fell 16 miles from the crater. Successive eruptions have been furious, but those today were by far the most serious.

Forest Ranger Abbey and a party of explorers returned from the peak after witnessing the eruptions from close range. Supervisor Rushing, of the United States forest service, gave an account of their observations:

"Mount Lassen erupted at 3:45 P. M. on June 12th, throwing out dense clouds of steam mixed with volcanic ash and boulders. Another eruption took place at 6:30 A. M., June 13th.

"Ranger Abbey was half a mile south of the center when it first erupted. He saw a white crested column of steam and ashes with a black core, shoot 2,000 feet into the air. The black core quickly descended and the ash-laden column of steam bent to the east.

"Huge columns of steam continued to roll out and rocks weighing hundreds of pounds were thrown a quarter of a mile and more."

HIS EFFORTS APPRECIATED.

Wilson Increases Salary of Chief of Police Wiggs.

Wilson, N. C., June 13.—In appreciation of his efforts to improve the condition here in Wilson, Chief of Police Wiggs has been given an increase of salary by the board of commissioners. Mr. Wiggs is alert and constantly on the watch for blind tigers and is also making a strenuous effort to break up vagrancy.

Telephone reports from various sections of the county tell the story of good rainfall during the past two days. Crop prospects are considerably brightened.

BANDIT ATTEMPTS HOLD-UP AT LENOIR AND IS JAILED.

Enters Office and Demands Money at Point of Pistol.

Charlotte, N. C., June 13.—Lennie Houck, 20 years old, was jailed at Lenoir, N. C., this afternoon, charged with an attempted hold-up, according to specials from Lenoir tonight.

At 1 o'clock this afternoon a masked man entered the office of a chair company, demanding money at the point of a pistol. Lumber Inspector C. R. Safford and Miss Lillie Tuttle, a stenographer, told him he must be joking. The bandit ,failing to break into an inner office, began shooting. Safford was hit in the arm. Miss Tuttle escaped injury and gave the alarm.

ADLAI E. STEVENSON PASSED DURING NIGHT

Former Vice President Under Grover Cleveland

After Months of Illness Well Known Man Passes to His Reward—Died in Hospital in Chicago—Career.

Chicago, June 13.—Adlai E. Stevenson, Vice President of the United States through the second Cleveland administration, died tonight at a hospital here after an illness of several months. His three children were at his bedside.

Adlai Ewing Stevenson, once Vice President of the United States, had a long and honorable public career. He was Vice President from 1893 to 1897 under President Grover Cleveland. In 1900 he again was nominated by the Democratic party for Vice President and ran with William J. Bryan, the party's candidate for President, but was defeated. He served as a member of the 44th and 45th Congresses. From 1885 to 1889 he served as first assistant Postmaster General under President Cleveland.

His last appearance as a candidate for public office was in 1908, when he was nominated for governor of Illinois by the Democratic party and was defeated by Chas. S. Deneen, Republican.

He was born in Christian county, Kentucky, October 23, 1835, of Scotch-Irish parentage. In 1853 his parents moved to Bloomington, Ill. He attended the public schools and the Illinois University.

In 1866 he graduated fram Canter College, Danville, Ky. There he was a classmate of Senator Joe Blackburn and other Kentucky youths who later became prominent in public life. He signalized the close of his college career by marrying a daughter of Dr. Lewis W. Green, president of the college.

WILSON MAY LEAD COMBINED FLEET

Through Panama Canal on Bridge of the Oregon

HONOR TO EXPOSITION

President Will Enter San Francisco at Head of Greatest Armada Ever Gathered Together—Over 100 Battleships.

Washington, June 13.—President Wilson next March possibly will lead the international fleet of warships from Hampton Roads to Colon to participate in the formal opening of the Panama Canal by passing through on the bridge of the world-famous old battleship Oregon as leader of the long line of fighting craft of all nations and then after proceeding northward, enter the Golden Gate at the head of the immense armada and attend the Panama Pacific Exposition at San Francisco.

This announcement was made today by Secretary Daniels. Originally the President was to go from Washington to Hampton Roads to greet commanders of the international fleet as they arrived. Afterward he was to make the trip by rail to San Francisco to visit the exposition at some convenient later date.

The President, however, has determined now to do full honor to the exposition by making his advent on the scene at the head of an armada the like of which the world has never seen. Also he will redeem his long-standing promise to Col. George W. Goethals to formally open the Panama Canal.

The President, according to the present programme will leave Washington for Hampton Roads, accompanied by his officiol family, on the yacht Mayflower, March 5th, 1915. The international fleet will have been gathering in the roads since January 1st.

Nine Countries so Far.

So far nine maritime countries have announced they will take part in the parade through the canal and it is certain there will be other participants. The countries that have accepted are the Argentine Republic, Cuba, France, Germany, Great Britain, Italy, Japan, Portugal and Russia. The entire Atlantic fleet of the American navy will form the nucleus around which the international naval forces will gather.

After the ceremonies at Hampton Roads, the President will take up his quarters on the New York, which will be at that time the most formidable vessel in the world.

The start will be made for Colon with the New York leading. There probably will be between 80 and 100 ships in the procession.

Exact details of the formal ceremonies in connection with the passage of the great fleet of warships at the o...cial opening of the Panama Canal have not been completed. If all goes well the first vessels of the international fleet should pass through the Golden Gate by April 15th, 1915.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE IS ENDORSED IN CHICAGO

Federation of Women's Clubs Takes Action

On Heels of Vote Comes Word That Illinois Supreme Court Has Ruled State Suffragist Act Was Constitutional.

Chicago, June 13.—The principle of woman suffrage was endorsed here today by the General Federation of Women's Clubs after a twenty years' fight by the suffragists to break down the federation's constitutional bar on political and religious subjects. The motion was made by Mrs. E. G. Denniston, a San Francisco, chairman of the resolutions committee. There were seconds from all over the house.

When the question was put there was a chorus of "ayes" but scattered negatives were plainly heard.

The resolution follows:

"Whereas, the question of political equality of men and women is today a vital problem under discussion throughout the civilized world;

"Resolved, That the General Federation of Women's Clubs give the cause of political equality its moral support by recording its earnest belief in the principle of political equality regardless of sex."

Scarcely had the convention favored the principle of female suffrage when news was brought that the Illinois Supreme court had upheld the State law giving women the right to vote for statutory officers.

Opinions of the women differed as to the effect of the endorsement of equal suffrage.

Mrs. Loraine Pratt Emmen, of Grand Rapids, Mich., said the suffragists were so determined to gain some sort of recognition that there was no chance of defeating them.

Act Is Constitutional.

FURTHER RESULTS FROM CONFERENCE

Rapid Developments Expected Next Week.

CARRANZA IS DILATORY

Constitutionalists Will Not Send Representatives to Niagara Falls Until Answers Received to Two of Their Notes.

Washington, June 13.—Further definite results in the Mexican mediation conference at Niagara Falls are looked for by officials of the Washington government early next week, their conclusions being based on communications received from the American representatives who were in touch with Secretary Bryan late today.

No word of any actual progress at the joint conference today was received by officials here, but it was stated the mediators and parties to the conference had talked over the character of the proposed provisional government to be instituted in accordance with the protocol signed yesterday by the represensentatives of Huerta and the United States.

In several sources the attitude of the Constitutionalists toward mediation was declared to be dilatory in view of the announcement from General Carranza's headquarters at Saltillo that a reply to the latest note to the mediators would be awaited before the representatives of the Constitutionalist chief would proceed to Niagra Falls to confere informally with the American representatives and the Huerta commissioners. That an answer was expected from the mediators to the communication stating that Constitutionalist delegates would be sent, also was declared by Carranza's agents in Washington. No reply from the mediators had been received tonight.

President Wilson just before leaving early in the day for Princeton was notified of the signing of the first protocol which specifies that a provisional government could be established in Mexico to succeed the Huerta regime, such government to be recognized by the United States.

President Is Satisfied.

The President expressed satisfaction over this actual achievement in the negotiations. Secretary Bryan again reiterated his insistent declaration late in the day that the peace negotiations were progressing satisfactorily.

The fact that the Huerta government has an active representative in Washington working for the best interests of the dictator in the progress of mediation, became known today when it developed that Charles A. Towne, a New York atorney, and former United States senator from Minnesota, had been retained by the Mexican City regime. Mr. Towne has been in Washington several days, has had two conferences with President Wilson and today was in communication with Secretary Bryan. He plans to see President Wilson again tomorrow. The New York attorney also was in touch during the day with the Mexican delegates at Niagara Falls.

Mr. Towne late today issued a statement expressing approval of the signing of the first protocol, but declaring that the mater of choosing the personnel of the provisional government, particularly the man for the presidency, was the gravest problem before the mediators, and that the situation at the present time was "tense and delicate." The Huerta counsellor would not discuss the status of the proceedings from the viewpoint of the Huerta government, further than to say that "it is a mistake to infer that the rest of the deliberations are bound to proceed smoothly."

Want Concessions.

Reports were current here tonight that the Huerta delegates in view of concessions already made by them in the proceedings thus far, now were asking that the United States make some concessions in the plan proposed by them for the establishment of the new government. It is argued from the Huerta standpoint that he first yielded to the demand for his elimination, and that he subsequently yielded the stipulation of his commissioners that he be permited to name a secretary of foreign affairs, who would succeed him as president and then name the provisional government to be selected by the mediation conference. For the Huerta government to agree that a Constitutionalist should be made provisional president, the dictator's friends hold, would fight the Constitutionalists to the end would be a Carranzista succession to the government.

Whether there will be any yielding on the part of the United States in its conception of the scheme to be followed in the formation of the provisional government could not be learned. That official conferences bearing on this would be held here tomorrow and seemed probable. Considering this point, the position of the Constitutionalists will be taken into consideration, some officials averring that to set up a provisional government as a result of mediation which does not amply recognize the revolutionary forces in exico would avail nothing.

Fighting Continues.

While the deliberations are proceeding the Constitutionalists' forces are continuing their advance on Mexico City, and so far as can be learned, propose to continue as vigorously as possible, despite the fact that their representatives may proceed to Niagara Falls to talk over the peace proposals. Joe Vasconcelos, who has been mentioned as one of the probable delegates to be designated for the mediation conference by Carranza, returned to Washington today from New

DELGADO VICTORIOUS.

Score Against East Wilmington Is 11 to Three Yesterday.

An interesting and exciting game was played at Delgado yesterday afternoon between the locals and the East Wilmington aggregation, the home team winning by a score of 11 to 3.

The game was interesting throughout, abounding in brilliant fielding, and especially did the heavy hitting of the Delgado bunch shine out, as well as their rare ability to get around the bases at opportune moments, by the aid of timely hits. The heavy hitting locals had a total of eight two-base clouts to their credit for the engagement.

Batteries: Delgado, Matthews and Wats; East Wilmington, Pearsall and Buck.

ACME BOYS DOWN WILMINGTON PICKED TEAM.

Score Twenty-Four to Four at End of the Battle Royal.

Acme, N. C., June 13.—The local heavy hitters scored a walk-over against a picked team from Wilmington this afternoon, the largest score ever obtained in a game on the local diamond, the affair being chalked up 24 to 4 in favor of the home team after the dust had cleared away.

The big feature of the game was the heavy hitting of the local boys, and their ability to produce runs out of every hit.

Batteries: Acme, Hilliard, King and Becker; Wilmington, Jones, Adams and Sewell.

LAURINBURG DEFEATS MAXTON RAIN BREAKS UP THE GAME.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Laurinburg, N. C., June 13.—Laurinburg defeated Maxton Friday by a score of 5 to 3. Rain broke up the game in the eighth inning. Covington, pitching for Laurinburg, only allowed the visitors six hits and struck out 13. The visitors made five errors. The locals found Evans, the visiting pitcher, for nine hits. Maxton hired a team to play the series of games, while Laurinburg is playing only home boys, and has one of the strongest all-home teams in this neck of the woods.

GIANTS DOWN W. L. I. BRIGADE---Y. M. C. A. TIE

Brilliant Fielding of All Teams Featured.

Yesterday's Results Bring Light Infantry to a Tie With Association and Boys' Brigade Tie With the Giants.

Standing of the Clubs.

| | W | L | T | Pct |
| Y. M. C. A. | 4 | 2 | 1 | .666 |
| W. L. I. | 4 | 2 | 1 | .666 |
| Giants | 2 | 4 | 1 | .333 |
| Boys' Brigade | 2 | 4 | 1 | .333 |

Two fast and exciting games were played yesterday afternoon at Sunset Park by the City League teams, a large crowd of spectators being present to witness their money's worth in good baseball.

The Giants took the W. L. I. into camp by the score of 10 to 8 in the first engagement, and in the latter event the Y. M. C. A. and the Boys' Brigade battled for nine long innings, for a tie game of three to three, when darkness put an end to further operations, with both teams still thirsting for blood.

The first game was exciting all the way through. The Light Infantry boys started right in the beginning to make their presence felt, and got a four run lead on the Giants, but the plucky cellarites came back strong in their half of the third and scored seven runs, which lead the Infantry could not overcome.

Shepard pitched good ball for three innings, and when the game was safely put on storage he was relieved by Davis. Watters started for the W. L. I. and was hit rather freely, giving way to Shaw, who held them down to one run for the last four innings. Kite and Shepard were there with the stick, the former having two doubles, each coming at critical moments, and the latter also putting over a timely two-base clout with the bases congested.

The Brigade secured a three-run lead on the Association boys by scoring two in the third and one in the fourth. With two down in the third inning, errors let in two runs for the Brigade.

The Y. M. C. A. got busy in the sixth with timely hitting and evened things up. A base on balls, a double by Lewis, and Tracy did the trick. Register allowed nine hits that were well scattered except in the sixth, when the scoring resulted. Green was touched for a half dozen safeties.

First Game.

Second inning, W. L. I.—Duls singled to center. Orrell hit to third, who caught Duls at second. Orrell was caught stealing. Smith was safe on an error of second. Bell hit by a pitched ball. Watters doubled to center, scoring Smith and Bell. Watters scored when left fielder misjudged Hines' fly. Shaw flied to catcher. Three runs. Two hits.

Second inning, Giants—Kite doubled to center, but umpire didn't see him touch first. Cashwell was safe on error of second. Bethea singled. Palmgren was safe on fielder's choice, Cashwell going out at third. Gerdes singled to right scoring Bethea and Palmgren. Two runs; three hits.

Third inning, W. L. I.—Boswell walked and scored on Terry's single. Duls got an infield hit. Orrell struck out, Smith singled to right and Terry was caught at the plate. One run; three hits.

Third inning, Giants—Shepard doubled, and Sellers singled. Shepard scored when Davis hit a slow grounder to third. Sellers scored when catcher threw past third. Kite walked and Cashwell was safe on fielder's choice. Bethea doubled, scoring Kite and Cashwell, but got out trying to make third on it. Palmgren was safe on right's error, and scored on Gerdes' single. Hines was safe on error of second; Shepard doubled to left, scoring Hines. Sellers walked and Davis flied to left. Seven runs; four hits.

Fourth inning, W. L. I.—Watters singled to left and was caught stealing. Hines was safe on fielder's choice and stole second, but was out when short threw Shaw's grounder to third. Boswell was safe on error or first, scoring Shaw. Terry was safe on error of pitcher, Boswell scoring. Duls doubled and Orrell flied to center. Two runs; one hit.

Fifth inning, Giants—Kite doubled and Cashwell followed with a single, scoring him. Bethea was safe on fielder's choice. Cashwell was out at second. Palmgren and Gerdes struck out. One run; two hits.

Fifth inning, W. L. I.—Smith and Bell struck out. Shaw walked. Hines hit through third, scoring Shaw. Shaw flied to right. One run, one hit.

Second Game.

Third inning, Boys Brigade—H. Register out, second to first; E. Register safe on error of first. R. Burnett safe on fielder's choice, E. Register going out at second. Shepard singled, scoring R. Burnett and Burnett's brother singled, scoring Shepard, but was caught at second. Two runs; one hit.

Fourth inning, Boys' Brigade—Wilson was out, short to first. Hugh struck out. Litgen was safe on error of left. Branch singled, scoring Litgen. H. Register safe on error of short. Branch out, second to third. One run; one hit.

Sixth inning, Y. M. C. A.—Thompson walked. Tracy doubled and Thompson was caught at the plate. Tracy was safe on Smith's grounder and Walsack was safe on error of short. Lewis doubled scoring Tracy. Smith and Walsack. Houston safe on fielder's choice. Green doubled and Lewis was caught at the plate. Buck walked and Taylor flied to right. Three runs, two hits.

MAJOR BARRETT, ENGLISH POLO STAR, FIGURED IN INTERNATIONAL GAME

Major BARRETT, WITH KING OF SPAIN'S HORSE.

AMERICAN POLOISTS GO DOWN IN DEFEAT

English Challengers Win First Game of Match.

Defeat Came as Great Surprise to 40,000 Spectators—Americans the Favorites 10 to 7.

Meadowbrook Polo Club, Westbury, Long Island, June 13.—The American team went down to defeat here today before the English challengers in the first game of the match for the international polo cup by a score of 8 1-2 to 3. After the first flurry in the opening period the defending four were outplayed and outsprinted by the Hurlington Club representatives and the English ponies.

The defeat came as a great surprise to most of the 40,000 spectators who had made the defenders 10 to 7 favorites in the wagering. They were quick to appreciate the brilliant play of the invaders, however, and the stands rang with applause at the work of the English riders.

The English players' superiority became apparent with the bell in the opening period and it appeared to upset the defending four, which never recovered the form shown in recent games until the closing minutes of the game. The challengers gave the finest exhibition of team work ever seen in an invading four. Their stick work was a revelation.

The American four was far weaker than was the case last year and in addition was called on to face a team which surpassed in skill and speed the combination which just failed to lift the cup in 1913.

The absence of former Capt. Harry Payne Whitney appeared to break up the perfect combination play for which the "Big Four" has been noted.

The Americans overrode the ball, missed easy strokes and were easily ridden off by other English opponents. The English ponies were faster on their feet and better handled.

The play in general was fast and without accidents. The score was the largest run up in recent years by either the United States or English teams in a cup match.

Not since the "Big Four" defeated the Hurlington Club 8 to 2 in the final game of the 1909 series have today's figures been exceeded.

The game also developed the quickest goal ever made in international cup play when Captain Cheape scored within ten seconds after the throw in at the beginning of the fourth period.

The merchant whose advertising is so good that his competitor's wife feels half inclined to deal with him is on the straight road to fortune.

COTTON AND CORN IN ROBESON FINE

But Tobacco Crop is Going to be Very Short.

Money and Location for Lumberton Hotel Secured—Heat Wave Broken by Copious Rain—No Court—Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., June 13.—Again this week your correspondent made a trip to the country, going with Messrs. O. C. Norment and Geo. L. Thompson to the thriving little city of Fairmont. The writer dislikes to go to Fairmont, for one reason, when he goes there the people are so nice and clever that he hates to leave. The condition of crops, that is cotton and corn, between Lumberton and Fairmont, is enough to make a sick man well.

The tobacco crop is going to be very short on account of the farmers not being able to get a stand, owing to the dry weather, and the writer is told that much of the ground planted in tobacco has been plowed up and planted in other crops. One tobacco man said they should be selling by July 1st, but that they would be lucky to sell any by August 1st. The tobacco crop in the Fairmont section is variously estimated at from 25 to 60 per cent of a normal crop.

From all sections of the county come good reports of the corn and cotton crops. Farm Demonstrator Boone made a tour of the upper end of the county this week and says, with the exception of one small section, crops are as good as could be wished for. A gentleman who resides in Rowland was here this week and stated that he thought the crops in that section were the best at this season for three years.

Hotel Now Certain.

The stockholders of the proposed new hotel held a meeting Thursday afternoon and after adjournment gave it out that the trouble of financing the enterprise was a thing of the past, as the money to erect a large modern hotel had been secured, and that the building would be located on the lot belonging to Mr. A. E. White, on Chestnut street, between Fourth and Fifth. Mr. White notified the different tenants on the lot yesterday to vacate within 30 days. It is said the architect will be here Monday and it is expected that the contract will be awarded within a few days. The building, if erected as proposed, and there now seems to be not the least doubt of it, will be centrally located, less than half a block from the court house, less than a block from the postoffice, a block from the Western Union office, a few steps from the telephone office, and not over a block from any of the banks.

This section has not been behind other parts of the country during the week in the hot weather line, the weather station reporting 99 for the past two days. Relief came yesterday afternoon about 5:30 when there was a good rain. It was a slow, steady rain, lasting until well into the night, the rainfall being .99. Reports indicate that the rain was general in this section. The rainfall reported here a week ago this morning was 1.98.

The fruit stands which for a long time have been located on Elm street, between the cotton mill office and Mr. J. P. McNeill's store, have been removed and the ground has been broken for the erection of two stores three stories high. Mr. S. A. Branch is the contractor, and he expects to put up one of the best business buildings in Lumberton. Mr. Meares, one of the tent owners, has stored his goods until he can secure a location, while Mr. Robert Singletary, proprietor of the other stand, has moved into the small building corner Fifth and Elm streets, owned by Dr. J.D. Regan. Mr.Singletary will, however, sell out or close up after today, he having accepted the position of bridge foreman on the Raleigh & Charleston railroad. Mr. Singletary was formerly in that business.

To Drive Out Flies.

Mesdames L. T. Townsend and R. D. Caldwell have been appointed by the civic association a committee to urge the merchants to do all in their power to assist in driving the flies out of town. All merchants handling groceries, vegetables, etc., are asked to screen their doors and windows, and on closing at night to use some remedy for killing flies, so that those that succeeded in gaining entrance during the day may be killed.

Chief of Police Redfern is going after all who have not paid their privilege tax. It's no use trying to dodge here.

Mr. Henry Pitman, of Wisharts township, was in town yesterday looking the picture of good health for one of his age. He was 90 years old the 4th of May. He has never worn eye glasses.

Last Monday was the regular time for Superior court to convene, but as there was little business needing attention and the farmers too busy to bother with court the term was dispensed with. Judge Rountree came up Monday afternoon,signed a few orders and returned to Wilmington the same night. It is regretted here that Judge Rountree will not be on this circuit for some time. A term of criminal court will convene July 6th, with Judge Chas. M. Cooke, of Louisburg, presiding.

The first excursion of the season from here will be run from Lumberton to Wilmington, for white people, next Saturday, June 20th. The train will leave here at 6:20 A. M., fare for the round trip $1. On Monday, June 22nd, an excursion for colored people only will be run from Hamlet to Wilmington, the train passing here at 8:12 A. M. The fare for the round trip will be $1.

There is evidently a great crop of huckleberries in this section, as the writer does not recall ever seeing so many offered for sale. The prices range from 7 to 10 cents per quart.

Walton Bethune's "Educational Tour" to be run to Washington Tuesday, is going to be well patronized, unless all signs fail.

Candidates Innumerable.

Your correspondent will not try further to keep up with the list of candidates that are coming out for office of various kinds in this county. The woods are full of candidates, to say nothing of those in the different towns of the county.

Last winter when Mr. H. H. Anderson gave up the Waverly Hotel, he rented the 12 or 15 rooms over the Dixie Cafe and furnished them with the hotel furniture. Since that time he has been furnishing rooms to the travelling public, they getting meals wherever they could. This week Mr. Anderson sold his furniture, "lock stock, and barrel," to Dr. J. D. Regan, who expects to continue to furnish rooms to the weary traveler.

The matrons' club of Lumberton celebrated the 12th anniversary of its organization Thursday night at the residence of Mrs. Lizzie Proctor by giving one of the most pleasant receptions ever given here, and a large number were entertained. Ice cream and other refreshments were served in abundance, while music for the occasion was furnished by a Wilmington orchestra, composed of Messrs. John Scelzi, W. C. Hollowbush and Prof. Johnson. The evening was one of much enjoyment for all present.

Mrs. W. E. Tomlinson, of Quincy, Fla., arrived yesterday to spend some time with her mother, Mrs. Flora Smith, and other relatives. Before her marriage Mrs. Tomlinson was Miss Dora Smith, one of Lumberton's most popular young ladies.

Miss Georgie Whitfield returned this week from Greensboro and Asheboro, where she had been visiting. She was accompanied home by her sister, Miss Irma Whitfield, who spends most of her time with a married sister in Asheboro.

Messrs. Max Levin, of the Seaboard, with headquarters in Raleigh, and E. E. Hunter, of the same system, with headquarters in Wilmington, have been Lumberton business visitors this week.

Mr. H. E. Bonitz, of Wilmington, was here yesterday.

N. C. Hams Plentiful.

Country raised hams continue to come to market in abundance. Your correspondent saw in one grocery store this week a pile of these hams said to be worth $3,000.

Mr. Rufus Sanderson, clerk in the National Cotton mill office, was operated on for appendicitis at the Thompson hospital yesterday afternoon. The operation was entirely successful and the patient is doing well.

Prof. R. E. Sentelle, superintendent of the Lumberton graded schools, left this morning to join his family who left several days ago for their summer home at Waynesville.

Rev. Mr. Sherwood, of Red Springs, will preach at the First Presbyterian church tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock and in the evening at the usual hour. Services will be conducted in the other churches by their pastors.

Mrs. Lloyd C. Townsend gave a reception last night in honor of her sister, Miss Rose Woodward, of Morganton, who is spending some time here with her sisters, Mrs. Townsend and Miss Emily Woodward, the latter being stenographer at the Bank of Lumberton.

Mr. E. H. Prevatt, probably 40 years old, residing in the Fairmont section, died last night after an illness of only a few hours. He was a brother of Mr. Wright Prevatt, of Lumberton.

Even 20 people went from here to Wilmington last Sunday, taking advantage of the Sunday $1.25 round trip rate. Another party is expected to go down tomorrow morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McDonald left yesterday for Bryson City, where Mrs. McDonald will spend the summer with her parents. Mr. McDonald will return the first of the week. W.S.W.

GOOD RAINS IN JONES.

Copious Showers Break Long Drought in County.

Maysville, N. C., June 13.—Relief from the drought, which had been prevailing in Jones county for weeks past, came yesterday afternoon. A heavy thunder cloud passed over this community about 5 o'clock and a copious shower fell, continuing, after a brief intermission, into the night. No rain of any consequence had fallen in a long time, and the arid sands, the drooping plants, and the wilted vegetation generally, presented a gloomy prospect to the farmers. Today everything is refreshed, and all nature seems to rejoice.

"LET THEM DIE!" CRY ANTI-SUFFRAGETTES IN LONDON AS MILITANTS BEGIN HUNGER STRIKES

1. BUCKINGHAM PALACE 2. SUFFRAGETTE RESISTING ARREST 3. SUFFRAGETTES OUTSIDE BUCKINGHAM PALACE

London, June 13.—"Let them die!" That's the cry of a big majority of the people who are opposed to the militant suffragettes. They think the only cure for the outrages which have stirred all England is to let the suffragettes starve themselves in jail until they die if they so choose to continue their hunger strikes. The recent burnings and the attempts to see the king in Buckingham palace during his birth day celebration have incensed the populace. Many who favor giving women the vote are opposed to the militant methods. The present outbreak may gradually die out, like other recent outrages, but the militants say they will be heard from until they win even if they have to die.

TRULL SENTENCED TO DIE

Young White Man of Charlotte Found Guilty of Murdering Merchant —Sensation Sprung.

Charlotte, N. C., June 13.—Charles Trull, a young white man, on trial here for killing Sydney Swain, a merchant, today was convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to die August 14.

Swain was waylaid on the night of May 16 and robbed of more than $400. Such a sum was later found on Trull's person.

A sensation marked the closing hours of the trial when Judge W. J. Adams suddenly ordered the prisoner searched for drugs, declaring he would order the prosecution of the person who supplied them. Trull slept during the judge's charge.

THIRTY-FIVE NEW PHARMACISTS IN STATE.

Licenses Will be Issued and Mailed to This Number.

Raleigh, N. C., June 13.—Licenses will be issued and mailed to 35 young men who passed the examination here this week for license to practice pharmacy in this State. There were 81 applicants for license but only 35 of the number passed the examinations, which were concluded yesterday. The names of the successful ones follow:

Ernest V. Woodard, Princeton; David C. Pemberton, Troy; Joseph W. McKay, Kings Mountain; Joseph D. Joyner, Franklinton; William E. Tate, Winston-Salem; William A. McDonald, Enfield; Henry O. ## MAY GO TO KNOXVILLE.

Rev. Melton Clark Will be Called to Pastorate There.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., June 13.—Rev. Melton Clark, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, has gone to Knoxville, Tenn., to preach tomorrow. While there he will receive a call from the First Presbyterian church of that place. The committee appointed to recommend a pastor for the church has already unanimously recommended him, and all that remains is for the formal call to be extended. Dr. Clark has not intimated what he will do. Greensboro people hope and believe, however, that he will not accept. His church here is a large one, and the most liberal giving Presbyterian church in the State.

PRESIDENT VARDELL FOR CHANGE OF NAME

To "Flora Macdonald College" at Red Springs.

And at Least Three Members of the Board of Trustees of Southern Presbyterian College are With Him Heartily.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Red Springs, N. C., June 13.—Having heard more or less local discussion relative to changing the name of the Southern Presbyterian College and Conservatory of Music, located at this place, to the "Flora MacDonald College," the daily press of the State having also given more or less publicity to the matter, this correspondent interviewed Dr. C. G. Vardell, the president of this institution, who left Thursday for a month's itinerary in North and South Carolina.

"Yes," said Dr. Vardell, "we contemplate changing the name to the 'Flora MacDonald College,' and this is our reason. You know Dr. James A. Macdonald, of Toronto, Canada, who is one of the most distinguished Scotchmen in either Great Britain, Canada or America, made his third visit to our school last April to show us his continued interest in our work, also to assure us of his good wishes, and in the course of our conversation he expressed regrets that we hadn't been able to carry out plans of 'The Flora Macdonald Training School.' Dr. Macdonald's idea was to perpetuate the memory of this noble Scotch heroine, also to give material aid to worthy girls.

"I told him," said Dr. Vardell, "that I was very much pleased with the idea and assured Dr. Macdonald of the fact I believed that if we could launch this movement that, not only would the Scotch people be interested, but, that the people of North Carolina as a whole would be greatly interested in the work.

What is Being Done.

"I received a few days ago, a letter from Dr. Macdonald, which I can't make public now, but I will say this much, he is at work on his end of the line and wants to know what we are doing here."

The broad grin on Dr. Vardell's face indicated that Dr. Macdonald's letter contained something very encouraging.

Dr. J. L. McMillan, Col. A. T. McCallum, and Mr. W. L. Johnson were seen a few minutes later and told of the statement of Dr. Vardell, and, as they are members of the board of trustees, the writer inquired if they favored the suggestion of Dr. Macdonald. They all said, "Yes", and it was a case of everybody speaking at once.

GREAT MEETING OF THE EDITORS IS EXPECTED

"The Southern Editor's Big Job"—Hapgood.

New York Magazine Editor Announces His Subject—Insurance Probe to be Resumed Tomorrow—Dates Changed.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 13.—President Clarence Poe, of the North Carolina Press Association, says the indications are for a great meeting at Wrightsville Beach June 24-26 for the newspaper men of the State. Editor Norman Hapgood, of Harper's Weekly, the special orator for the convention, writes that his theme will be "The Southern Editor's Big Job." It has been arranged that Judge George Rountree, of the Superior court bench, will deliver the address of welcome and the response will be by Major H. A. London. Editors all over the State are writing that they expect to attend the convention.

Resume Insurance Probe Monday.

The special legislative commission for the investigation of the conduct of fire insurance companies in this State, Senator Victor S. Bryant, chairman, will resume sessions here Monday for the taking of evidence. There are no indications as yet as to just how much longer it will take to complete the investigation or just to what extent the investigations will go. A number of the most prominent fire insurance men of the entire country have been summoned here to testify next week and the expectation is that the principal part of the examination of insurance men and citizens as to fire insurance practices and conditions will be completed at the sessions that begin here Monday.

Military Commissions Issued.

Commissions were issued today by Adjutant General Young, of the North Carolina National Guard, to T. F. Bulla as captain, W. A. Garvin as first, and E. L. Hedrick as second lieutenant, Company K, Third regiment, Asheboro. E. C. Price, Jr., was commissioned as first lieutenant Company T, Third regiment, Warrenton. Charles Sumner, lieutenant junior grade, Seventh division, Naval Reserves, Hertford. The resignation of J. M. Booth as captain Company H, Third regiment, Warrenton, has been received and an election of successor ordered.

Encampment Dates Changed.

Adjutant General Laurence W. Young, of the North Carolina National Guard, has received from Washington another revised series of dates for encampments of the regiments and other units of the North Carolina guard, this being about the fifth set of dates that have been made. Under the latest arrangement the Second regiment and troops A and B will be encamped with regulars at Augusta, Ga., August 4 to 14; the Third regiment will be encamped at Camp Glenn July 6 to 16 and the First regiment at Camp Glenn July 20 to 30. The Ambulance Corps of Canton, and the Field Hospital Corps, of Asheville, will have a practice march near Asheville during the latter days of August.

PROPOSE TO ESTABLISH A SCHOOL AT MONTREAT.

Activities at the Presbyterian Summer Assembly Grounds.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Montreat, N. C., June 12.—At the recent meeting of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, held in Kansas City, an ad interim committee, consisting of Rev. Messrs. John I. Armstrong, S. L. Morris, H. H. Sweets, A. L. Phillips, C. C. Carson and R. P. Smith, and Elders John J. Eagan, W. H. Belk, R. T. Simpson, C. E. Graham, John J. Bartlett, C. R. Cannon and W. J. Roddey, was appointed to look into the feasibility of establishing a school at Montreat. The Mountain Retreat Association has offered the use of their buildings for this purpose, free of cost, for nine months of the year, and has also agreed to furnish free water and electric lights. This committee will meet at Montreat this summer and report to the next meeting of the assembly its findings.

A Cafeteria near the S. C. preachers' home and the Christian workers' home is nearing completion, where these preachers and workers can get meals at actual cost.

The following persons have either built new cottages or have let contracts for buildings: Miss Amey Nicholson, Union, S. C.; Dr. A. F. Crowell, Charlotte, N. C.; Mrs. W. T. Bryan, Columbia, S. C.; Miss Elizabeth Mc Comb, Hickory, N. C.; Rev. W. W. Akers, Louisville, Ky., and Rev. A. E. Spencer, Lake City, Fla.

The following are recent arrivals at Montreat: Mr. and Mrs. Dunlop and family, Rock Hill, S. C.; Misses Nellie and May Hall, Plumtree, N. C.; Mr. J. N. McLean and daughter, Mrs. Henry Elliott, of Alabama; Misses Evelyn and Athalie Nesbit, South Carolina; Miss M. H. Conkey, Clearwater, Fla.; Mrs. M. L. Whitman, LaGrange, Ga.; Mrs. Geo. L. Bitzer, Valdosta, Ga.; Mrs. T. M. McConnell, Morristown, Tenn.; Mr. L. M. Stratton and family, Memphis, Tenn.; Mrs. Cleo Allen, Wadesboro, N. C.; Mr. H. C. Strother, Chappels, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Shepard, Mobile, Ala.

Montreat has experienced an unusual drought for this season,but has recently been visited by refreshing rains and is now in its usual June garb, with the laurel in full bloom and the rhododendron budding and soon to bloom. The largest crowd in the history of the institution is expected for the summer. Several automobile lines are now running between here and Black Mountain, and those who prefer the quicker method of transportation can be accommodated.

A large meeting of the Choral Club was held last night at the residence of Mr. Crosby Adams. One of the features of the evening was a violin solo by Mrs. Frick, of Texas. The Choral Club had charge of the music at the church last Sabbath and delighted the large congregation with such selections as "Sanctus" and "The Lost Chord"—the latter fitting in so well with the pastor's sermon on "The Lost Chord in Spiritual Life."

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC., Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily at $6 per year; $3 for six months; $1.50 for three months; 50 cents for one month, by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate and like matter will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, to persons carrying a regular account, or, if paid cash in advance a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, excursions, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under the same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to the readers of the paper, in the discretion of the editors.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest are not wanted; and, if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

ALL DRAFTS, checks, express money orders and postal money orders for the paper should be made payable, and all communications should be addressed, to THE WILMINGTON STAR CO.

Some how or other Sir Lipton's yacht, Shamrock IV, causes us no little worry concerning the American cup.

"Vanity of vanities! All is vanity, saith the preacher," and so say all the preachers who behold the passing, whirling throng today.

It is not at all curious that an effort to get Congress on the water wagon has started up all the wagging tongues in Congress.

Even if Sir T. Lipton's tea is good, we hope the Vanitie will be the vanquisher. Probably it was the Vanitie which put the van in vanquish.

We hope President Wilson is as good a prophet as he is an optimist. He predicts that it won't be long before there will be more jobs than there are men.

The Washington Post seems to fear that some of them are liable to take the Panama Canal away from us while we are trying to treat other nations in a fairly decent manner.

They say Mellen lied about the wrecking of the New Haven road, but the circumstances show that it was the result of a lot of reckless high financing that required the assistance of some who were experienced in Big Business.

Representative Humphrey declares that "Woodrow Wilson costs the United States a million dollars a day." The country seems to be pretty well satisfied with having a President who is worth that much. The people are getting something for their money, and wouldn't have a gold-bricker at any price.

A statement in the local press yesterday that the liquor recently seized and confiscated from one Israel, who decamped, forfeiting bond for his appearance, had been sent to the James Walker Memorial Hospital by Justice Harriss, prompts the natural inquiry: "What has Justice Harriss got against the hospital?"

The referendum seems to be recognized in Baltimore. The Sun editorially discusses a proposition to leave it to a vote of the people of Baltimore whether there shall be baseball on Sunday. There is an ordinance against it, and, of course, if the people vote for Sunday ball, it would be repealed, with the result that sport on Sunday would be permissable under law. It would be curious to observe whether Baltimore considers baseball more desirable than Sunday.

Far away from shore not long ago, a big steamship went down into the fathomless depths of the ocean. While she was sinking scores of people rushed to the life boats as a means of escape. That was faith. For days the occupants of the life boats endured thirst and hunger in the expectation of reaching shore. That was hope. Some who could no longer endure their sufferings, gave up hope and leaped into the remorseless depths. Alas! That was despair.

BLOOD MONEY FOR THE STATE.

What's the use to boast about being progressive when we are many moons behind the times and don't know that the times have some gait to them? Some time ago The Star said that adopting so-called progressive ideas in politics, while continuing to run in old ruts in this practical age, would not entitle us to be regarded as progressive. Some people imagine that being progressive in politics is the equivalent of being radical and wild-eyed on theories. Some theories, be it said, are all right, but practicing the right thing beats preaching all to pieces. We don't mean the preaching that a consecrated minister of the Gospel does, but we mean the palpable twaddle that some people with very little liberality, but an immense amount of intolerance, indulge in.

We catch ourselves beating all around the bush to say that we should be progressive in practice instead of in theory. Men often indulge in a whole lot of "glittering generalities", as a critic once said about what he considered the "vapid sentimentalities" which he declared as characteristic of the writings of Bulwer. Rathborne discovered a "good thing" and pushed it, the Knights of Pythias are keeping on pushing it, and that order has vitalized a humane purpose and is accomplishing something in uniting men together in a high-purposed brotherhood. A theoretical conception came to Rathborne but he went to work and put it into practice by a fraternal organization which has succeeded him and is exemplifying throughout the United States a practical work that unites men together as a band of brothers.

It is not what we preach or what we profess, but what we do and put into practice that counts. We can talk about being progressive all we wish, but if we "aint" we are a lot of inconsistent, loud mouthed, mossbacks and reactionaries. Of course, we ought to be progressive politically along sane and safe lines, but certainly in a civic and social sense we should first be progressive. Indeed, efficiency in adminstration and reform in customs and methods in the public service count more in the way of progress than all our political progressivity without progressiveness along practical lines.

To administer the State government economically, so that the burdens of the people may be as light as possible, to conduct the institutions of the State and counties along efficient lines and under constantly improved methods is a type of progressiveness that is practical and absolutely needed. To know how to manage a penitentiary or a county penal institution, a poor house or a charitable institution, speaks more for administrations and parties than they can secure from hot air blasts and plausible wind-jamming.

We ought to start in on some reforms and clean them up and keep on improving things in North Carolina. If we can't make progress in a practical way, there is very little use of labeling ourselves progressives while we continue to be out of date on methods and practices. We can take up one thing at a time, or probably a half dozen, but The Star agrees with Al Fairbrothers' Everything that we certainly should adopt a new idea in our system of penology. We are neither progressive nor humane when we put a man in the penitentiary, work him for the benefit of the State or contribute his services to some railroad scheme for worthless stock, when his wife and children are left at home without means of support.

We punish a convict according to law, and punish his wife and children according to custom. We do not design to do so but we do, and there is more than one convict's wife and children who are left to the tender mercies of the world as a result of a really heathenish penal system. We punish the criminal and have no thought of the convict's family which is left to go hungry and become demoralized and depraved, as many an incident will prove. Pity the convict's wife and children whom the great State of North Carolina has deprived of a bread winner. They not only bear the obloquy and the shame but even greater punishment than is meted out to the man who falls into the clutches of the courts.

Fairbrother's Everything specially emphasizes progressiveness along that one line, and it is right in contending that a convict's earnings for the State or a part of them, should be paid to the family which is left alone to lead a hard existence—all in the name of justice! We know specific cases of the kind. Is there no public conscience which will prevent justice from penalizing a man and committing a crime against his innocent wife and children? We ought to discover things that are wrong and we ought to be progressive enough to correct our wrongful methods and inefficiency of administration. When we discover a "good thing" we ought to push it along and become practical progressives in this day of Christian enlightenment and civilization. If we don't know how to manage a penitentiary or a poor house, it is time we were getting progressive on that and scores of other lines.

GOOD ROADS AND PLANK ROADS.

Black River township, Harnett county, voted $25,000 in bonds on Wednesday last to construct modern highways in that progressive section of the county. It speaks well for the people of the township that only fifty votes were cast against good roads, while the bond issue received 164 votes. It is said the people of that progressive section of Harnett are enthusiastic over the result of the election, and certainly the farmers and land owners have lined up their township with modern ideas.

Eastern North Carolina counties, or portions of them, are rapidly falling into line on the good roads question. If a whole county does not adopt a progressive policy and construct a county system of modern highways some townships more progressive than others will go ahead and vote bonds to construct highways on their own account. That is better than not building good roads at all, but it forces a township to buy a road building equipment of its own, whereas it would be more economical for the county to equip itself with road machinery and construct roads in the various townships. It is as little as a county could do to buy the machinery and loan it to any progressive township which may decide to furnish itself a better means of rural transportation.

The Durham Herald remarked a few days ago that "the trouble with good road building in this State, if not in the whole country, is that we are now having to do a work that our forefathers should have done a couple of hundred years ago." Even so, our forefathers were in many respects far in advance of us in making travel easier and more economical. Modern highway building, according to the methods in use today, were not known to them, but they did construct plank roads between the main points. The old-fashioned gentleman used to make "2:40 on a plank road," as the old saying goes, and that's a great deal more than some of their descendants can do on the mud trails which they call roads.

At the same time, our forefathers constructed only for the time. There was nothing permanent about their splendid plank roads and causeways, but while they had their day, they kept up the plank roads, and it was the succeeding generations which let them rot and disappear off the face of the earth. A generation ahead of us seems to have lost all idea of having good public roads, but a portion of this generation has advanced in civilization and enlightenment and is giving us the fine sand-clay, macadam and bitulithic roads that are making hauling easier and life worth living.

Even now, some counties and sections go on living in the past, or may as well be, for they make no effort to build modern roads, while some of our way-behind-the-times friends belong to the rut, the root and the stump class, and actually take the trouble to go to the polls to vote in the negative as if they were living about the time Columbus discovered America.

SECRETARY DANIELS CAN'T COME.

Owing to the fact that pressing official duties will require the close attention of Secretary Josephus Daniels of the Navy, in Washington, he finds it impossible to be in Wilmington June 24-26, to be one of the speakers at the annual convention of the North Carolina Press Association. He wired to that effect yesterday, and certainly it will be a great disappointment to the editors and to the people of Wilmington.

The press convention is to be the greatest in the history of the association, and while Secretary Daniels will be missed from the program, President Clarence Poe has arranged a two-day order of the most attractive and interesting character. Of course, all the enjoyment in store for the editors and their friends is still in store, and Wilmington is going to give them the best time they ever had.

Secretary Daniels expresses regret that he cannot be with us during the meeting of the press association, but he promises later to make a visit to Wilmington. He will miss a good time by not being here with the North Carolina scribes, but whenever he does come he will have one of the warmest welcomes that Wilmington can give a distinguished North Carolinian.

MT. AIRY AND THE SOUTHERN.

We have been much interested in reading further from the Mount Airy News the pleadings before the Court of Public Opinion of Editor J. E. Johnson in the now famous case of the People of Mount Riry versus the Southern Railway. A verdict of guilty in the first degree having been rendered by the court, the defendant has submitted and sent down carte blanche to its section boss on the Mt. Airy division to use all the cross-ties he can find and to hire all the extra men he can enlist at a price and "do something to allay the public clamor."

But that doesn't satisfy the Mount Airy people, for they say the price offered for labor is not such as to attract competent help, something more is required than a few cross-ties and a few extra helpers and they are still calling for something more in the way of comprehensive relief. Then, if they don't get it and get it soon, they are going direct with their grievances to the grand jury of Surry county. From all accounts this is a proper recourse in a case of this kind and as the people have the right upon their side, it's a safe bet that they will win in the end.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The railroad rate to Wilmington on Sundays is so cheap that almost anybody can run down and take a dip in the ocean.—Lumberton Tribune.

Wilmington Star says that coat tail swinging is "in full blast in South Carolina." Would it not be more nearly correct to say that it is "in full swing?"—Rock Hill Herald.

We waste no sympathy on the people who find themselves under the heel of a political boss. The remedy is always at hand if they want to use it.—Durham Herald.

That Tar Heel press convention at Wrightsville Beach will probably weep a few official tears at the fact that there is nothing to drink but salt water; but there will be crocodile tears for all that, and a few mouths will be wiped from time to time, "for a' that, an' a' that!"—Columbia State.

We take little stock in the report that Congressman Robert N. Page is being groomed for Governor to succeed Governor Craig. The signs of the times already point too plainly to the next Democratic nominee for Governor and Mr. Page is too wise not to be able to read them.—Winston-Salem Journal.

The State convention balked at declaring for county primaries, which showed that there must have been quite a few county officeholders in attendance. A great many of the already "ins" really don't want to take a chance at a fair primary where the common ordinary voter would have a say-so. North Carolina is not less than 25 years behind her sister States in the matter of choosing her officeholders.—Southport News.

THE MONDAY STAR.

The Wilmington Star came out with a Monday edition this week and began its career as an every-day paper—and it is good enough for daily reading.—Maxton Scottish Chief.

Life becomes more and more worth living every day. We are now to have the pleasure of seven visits a week from the Wilmington Star instead of six as heretofore, for that most excellent paper is hereafter to be issued every day in the week.—Henderson Greenleaf.

A busy world—a world onward and upward—but where are we going? The Wilmington Star announces that it will hereafter appear as a seven-day paper—it took a postal card vote of its readers and the majority said seven days. The Charlotte Observer first fell into the seven-day habit, then it was followed by the Greensboro Daily News. The Asheville Citizen next came across, and then the News and Observer. Now The Star falls into line—and we suspect the Winston Journal will be the next. People want to read the news every day; they will finally want a Sunday evening paper. That has been tried in some of the cities and wasn't much of a success—but we are growing to it. Papers every hour will soon be demanded in small towns. In the great cities they pull 'em every hour—not so much because there is a demand, but for circulation. The Wilmington Star is a first-class newspaper, and to be in the procession it had to come across, it thought. Railroads run trains at all hours of the night—and the twenty-four hours are working hours these times. Banks run all night in some cities—and pretty soon the dry goods stores will be forced to keep open all the time. Electricity has turned darkness into light and everything living except the chickens works right along. And the Old Rooster has been getting up at midnight to crow as long as we can remember—in fact, he first started this night work.—Al Fairbrother's Everything.

MEMORIAL SERVICES BY FIREMEN TODAY.

Rev. G. T. Adams Will Deliver Address at Dock Street Church.

Rev. G. T. Adams, pastor of Fifth Street Methodist church, will deliver the address at the firemen's memorial exercises which will be held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Dock Street Christian church. Today has been designated by the State Firemen's Association as memorial day and appropriate exercises will be conducted in all the principal towns and cities of the State in memory of deceased firemen. During the past year there have been no deaths in the local department.

Capt. Jas. D. McNeill, of Fayetteville, president of the State association, has prepared a beautiful ritual service which will be carried out by the firemen this afternoon. The exercises will be opened with prayer by Mr. J. B. Huntington, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. After the reading of the 23rd Psalm the firemen will sing "Abide With Me." After the address by Mr. Adams another hymn will be sung. The names of all the deceased firemen since the organization of the local department will then be called after which the officers and the entire membership, commencing with Chief Schnibben and Assistant Chief Monroe, will in regular order, one at a time, proceed to the altar and deposit his bountonierre of for-get-me-nots upon the parchment on which has been written the names of the dead. These bountonierres will be provided for each member and will be worn during the service.

All volunteer firemen, friends of the firemen and the public generally are cordially invited to join with the firemen in the impressive memorial service this afternoon.

SECRETARY DANIELS UNABLE TO ATTEND

Will Have to be in Washington During Press Meeting.

Telegram Received Here Yesterday—President Poe Announces Completed Program for the Convention.

Hon. Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, will not be able to attend the convention of the North Carolina Press Association at Wrightsville Beach June 24, 25 and 26, as he had planned, according to a telegram received from him by Mr. Z. W. Whitehead, of this city, yesterday afternoon. Mr. Daniels states that official business will make it impossible for him to leave Washington during the week of the convention, and adds that he hopes to visit Wilmington later.

Yesterday's Raleigh News and Observer carried a short item in its Washington correspondence to the effect that Mr. Daniels would be obliged to cancel his proposed visit to Wilmington during the convention. Advices received here yesterday from President Clarence H. Poe, of the Press association, were to the effect that he was making an effort to have Mr. Daniels reconsider his decision in the matter, but nothing further was heard from him last night, and it is presumed that the Secretary of the Navy will be unable to attend the meeting.

The unfortunate turn of affairs which makes it impossible for Mr. Daniels to attend the convention will be a matter of deep regret, not only to the members of the Press association, of which the distinguished Secretary of the Navy has been a leading member of years, but also on the part of the citizens of Wilmington generally, who were looking forward with much pleasure to the visit of North Carolina's distinguished son. It had been planned by the Chamber of Commerce to arrange a reception or some other feature in honor of his visit to the city.

Mr. Daniel's telegram to Mr. Whitehead is as follows:

"Mr. Z. W. Whitehead, Wilmington, North Carolina.

"I regret more than I can tell you official business makes it impossible for me to leave Washington during the week of the editorial convention. I hope to go to Wilmington later, but cannot go now.

"JOSEPHUS DANIELS."

The following Washington correspondence appeared in yesterday's Raleigh News and Observer:

"Secretary Daniels has been compelled to withdraw his conditional acceptance of an invitation to speak to the North Carolina Press Association at Wrightsville Beach the latter part of June. The government's fiscal year closes June 30, making it impossible for the heads of the departments to leave at that time, owing to the many maters pending before them in closing up the year. There are many things of importance to be done in the Navy Department about that time."

However, in spite of the disappointment because of Mr. Daniels' inability to attend, the convention is expected to be the most successful in a number of years, and all indications point to a very large attendance.

President Poe has completed the detailed program of the convention which is as follows:

Wednesday, Juie 24.

Morning Session—10:30: Address of welcome, Judge George Rountree.

10:15—Response.

10:30—President's address, "The Editor Must Be a Crusader," Clarence Poe, Raleigh Progressive Farmer.

Wires President Poe.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 13.—President Clarence Poe received a telegram from Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels stating that press of official business will prevent him from attending the Press Association convention at Wrightsville Beach June 24-26 and delivering the address for which he was scheduled.

MR. S. B. UNDERWOOD.

President of the North Carolina Epworth League Conference which convenes in this city Wednesday night. Mr. Underwood is a well known educator, having been for several years superintendent of the Kinston schools. He was recently elected a member of the faculty of the Eastern Carolina Teachers' Training School at Greenville.

Y. W. C. A. HOUSE WARMING

Reception to Members and Friends at Association Building Tomorrow Evening.

The "House Warming" at the Young Women's Christian Association, 114 North Fourth street, which has been looked forward to with great interest for several months, will take place tomorrow night from 8 to 10 o'clock. All members of the association, with their friends, men and women, are expected to grace the occasion.

Mrs. W. H. Pemberton will meet the guests on the front porch. This is most fitting since Mrs. Pemberton and her committee, composed of Mesdames T. B. Willard, E. H. Munson, L. B. Sasser, B. J. Willingham, E. F. Banck, A. H. Harris and W. A. Dick, have been untiring in their efforts to make the residence a place of beauty.

Miss Carrie White and Miss Ida Black with their respective committees, will conduct the guests through the house. The house has been decorated by Mrs. J. W. Yates. Mrs. C. E. Taylor, Jr., will furnish the music, and Miss Annie Kidder the refreshments.

The officers of the association are as follows: President, Mrs. J. R. Kenly; first vice president, Mrs. C. O. Byerly; second vice president, Miss Carrie Myers; third vice president, Mrs. M. L. Stover; fourth vice president, Mrs. Walter Sprunt; corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. L. Vollers; recording secretary, Mrs. B. T. Hopkins; treasurer, Mrs. S. M. Boatwright.

The officers with their co-workers will help to make everyone feel at home.

The committees have been well organized by Miss Katie Grainger, chairman of the social service committee, and they are doing efficient work.

Miss Ella Clark, the general secretary, arrived several weeks ago and is now living at the Y. W. C. A. building. Misses Estelle Blake, Bessie Walker and Rose Sunofsky are also living at the building and will assist Miss Clark in giving a special welcome to all the guests.

MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS.

Willard Bag Manufacturing Co., Had Prosperous Year—Dividend.

The stockholders of the Willard Bag Manufacturing Company held their annual meeting in the office of the Carolina Insurance Company on Princess street Friday afternoon. Reports of the officers were read and showed that the company has had a splendid year, the amount of business done being approximately a half million dollars. Mr. J. B. McCabe, who recently audited the books of the company, reported that everything was in first class shape.

After declaring the usual 6 per cent dividend the present board of directors were re-elected with the addition of Mr. J. Haughton James. The board is now as follows: Messrs. J. Allan Taylor, C. W. Yates, M. S. Willard, J. W. Yates and J. Haughton James.

Immediately after the adjournment of the stockholders' meeting the directors met and re-elected the following officers: President, Mr. M. S. Willard; vice president, Mr. C. W. Yates; general manager and secretary and treasurer, Mr. B. P. Willard; superintendent, Mr. W. J. Farrar.

WILMINGTON MAN PASSES.

Mr. E. M. Hardin Given Pharmacy License—High Stand.

The many friends of Mr. E. M. Hardin, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hardin, of this city, will be glad to know that he was one of the successful 35 applicants for license to practice pharmacy before the State Board at Raleigh the past week. Mr. Hardin graduated in pharmacy at the Medical College of Virginia last week. There were 81 men who took the examination before the State board, but only 35 who were successful.

Mr. Hardin made such a splendid record in his pharmacy course that he has been elected assistant professor in the college and will return to the college. In connection with his teaching he will take a post graduate course in pharmacy.

MR. GODWIN MAKES REPLY

Answering Councilman Jones, Says 68 Whiskey Cases Were Worked Up by County Officers.

Replying to certain statements made in the annual report of Councilman Jones, which was published in yesterday's Star, to the effect that sleuths hired by the "moralists" of the city had not had anything to do except draw their salaries because of the efficient work of the police department, Mr. H. Mack Godwin, who is generally understood to be an employe of the so-called "moralists," yesterday sent The Star a statement for publication, enclosing therewith a list of 68 whiskey cases which he states were worked up by him and other county officers, these cases having been taken from the court docket of Justice Harriss. The statement is as follows:

"Editor Morning Star.

"Gentlemen:—I will thank you to give me space in your paper to answer Councilman Jones' report.

"The police force have tried hard to do their duty and undoubtedly would have done more if they had been allowed to do so. I only desire to answer one of his statements which he and every one else knows is absolutely false. He says that "sleuths" have made attack upon his work and that the police force (under his guidance) have been so thorough and successful that the hirelings had nothing to do except to draw their pay. As I am one of those who have been drawing a monthly salary and to whom I know his remarks are intended, I submit the following letter:

"'June 13,1914.

"'H. Mack Godwin, City.

"'Dear Sir:—As requested, I herewith enclose a list of cases for violating prohibition law which were worked up by you and other officers (other than the police force), and I also furnish docket number which is a court record and open to inspection of any one, and begins June 1st, 1913.

"'Yours truly,

"'GEO. HARRISS, J. P.'

In the communication of Mr. H. Mack Godwin is enclosed a list of cases as follows:

3024, Hunch Holly; 3036, C. S. Garrell; 3037, G. G. Thompson; 3039, W. V. Dew; 3041, W. P. Young; 3042, W. H. Heldig; 3044, J. B. Neally; 3053, Joe Barnes; 3055, Lee Justice; 3063, Stacy McNeal; 3037, Ben Davis; 3120 Annie McRae; 3103, Lillie Johnson; 3110, Geo. Weston; 3120, J. D. Burnett; 3121, J. D. Foy; 3240, Frank Ledley; 3244, Caesar Dudley; 3275, Ben Cottle; 3276, Geo. Rowan; 8, John Wessell; 11, Wm. Fay; 14, Honey Gause; 45, Chancey Hill; 59, Jno. W. Steers; 86, Jim Brown; 87, Jim Brown; 88, R. G. Morel; 96, Bill Mott; 97, John Fales; 100, Joe Kirkham; 106, Haynes High; 127, Sini Davis; 133, Carrie James; 161, Mae McNeal; 179, John Fales; 186, Gilbert Hollins; 236, Julius White; 237, Jesse Brown; 238, Walter Guion; 239, Son Jones; 240, Zeph Sampson; 241, Peter Bryant; 242, John Wall; 243, Rufus Crosby; 244, Cornelius Green; 245, Geo. Johnson; 246, John Benman; 254, Alfred McFarland; 278, Julius Canaday; 279, Nova Yates; 286, Tom Davis; 287, Calvin Holmes; 288, Marsden Sellers; 313, J. D. Burnett; 347, Elsie Smith; 349, Elsie Smith; 359, Carrie Simmons, and 428, B. Israel.

Continuing, the statement is as follows:

"A few of these cases, viz: W. P. Young, W. H. Heldig, J. D. Burnett, Ben Cottle, Jno. W. Steers, R. G. Morel, Carrie James, Elsie Smith, J. B. Neally and B. Israel, need special notice.

"Young and Heldig did a wholesale cider business and about 50 retailers were put out of business with them.

"Ben Cottle's conviction broke up the worst place in the county and more than 30 persons submitted to gambling in his place. Steers and Morel had floating bar rooms and supplied the thirsty every time the New York steamer came in. (They are dry now.)

"Carrie James and Elsie Smith were colored women doing business on a large scale. J. B. Neally was the No Tax man at Front and Orange. B. Israel was the little drummer who left hurriedly a few days ago.

"To say nothing about road sentences, these defendants have contributed at least $1,500 to school funds of this county. I have tried to do my whole duty and hope those who employ me are satisfied with my feeble efforts. I can assure everyone that my time is properly employed and at no time will I ever frequent improper places for pleasure under the guise of an officer, nor do I ever have time to take joy rides at night.

"H. MACK GODWIN."

Councilman Jones Answers.

The following communication was handed The Star last night by Councilman W. F. Jones, as a reply to Mr. Godwin's statements:

"To the Editor of The Star:

"The only comment I care to make upon the criticisms of one Mack Godwin, appearing in today's paper, is to say that I have no time to waste upon statements made by persons whose criminal record has been such that they are not entitled to credit for veracity from respectable citizens, and that life is too short for me to devote my spare moments in answering newspaper criticsms which are prepared and written by one person and signed by another. If the party who prepared this criticsm for Godwin will acknowledge the same through the press, I shall be delighted to expose the falsehoods carried in the article in question. Godwin is not an officer of the city of Wilmington, and has not been since May 6th, 1913. Sec. 434 of the Revised Ordinances reads: "The police organization of the city of Wilmington shall consist of a chief of police, a captain of police, and such sergeants of police and policemen as it now includes, or such as the Council may, from time to time, determine, and such special policemen as the Councilman of Public Safety may appoint for special purposes." Godwin has not been appointed by Council, or by the Councilman of Public Safety, hence he is not connected with the police department. If Godwin is such an important factor in the enforcement of law, why did his backers try to shelve him off upon Sheriff Cowan, and why did they send a strongly endorsed application to Marshall Dortch at Goldsboro, asking that he be given a Federal job? It is interesting to know that Dortch could not use him, after an investigation of Godwin's record here. I am a believer in Lincoln's old adage that "you cannot fool all the people all the time."

"W. F. JONES."

PRISON REFORM WORKER HERE

Rev. Sidney Love, Secretary of Carolina Prisoners' Aid Society, in the City—Lecture.

Rev. Sidney Love, secretary of the Carolina Prisoners' Aid Society and editor of the Golden Rule, a prison reform publication, of Raleigh, is spending ten days in the city in the interests of the work of his society, and will deliver a number of lectures while here. Mr. Love will address the prisoners in the county jail this morning at 9:30 o'clock, and will make a short talk at the East Wilmington camp this afternoon. Other lectures will be announced later.

Mr. Love is well known in Wilmington, having visited this city and appeared on the lecture platform advocating prison reform movements a number of times. His last visit to Wilmington was two years ago. He is also known throughout the country as North Carolina's foremost advocate of the cause of more humane treatment of the State's unfortunates.

The society which Mr. Love represents is endeavoring to bring about a law providing that the State shall pay to a convict's wife and children all money resulting from his labors, over and above the cost of the prisoner's maintenance by the State.

Mr. Love stated to a Star man yesterday that according to the last State prison report there are at the present time 161 married men in the State prison camps, and 14 widowers. The number of children left by these men is probably about 400, while in the county chain gang camps there are 300 married prisoners, with families amounting to probably 600, the total probably reaching 1,000 children deprived of a father's support.

At least half of these children, says Mr. Love, have to be supported by public charity, the Carolina Prisoners' Aid Society having under its supervision to help and maintain about 400 of these children.

Mr. Love is optimistic over the present outlook for the society, and believes that eventually the organization will accomplish all that it has set out to do. A lecture was delivered in Durham by the secretary last Sunday, and according to press reports was greatly appreciated.

As stated, Mr. Love will arrange to deliver a lecture in the city during his stay here, and will, in the course of time, make a campaign all over the State of North Carolina for the purpose of interesting the people in prison reform. At the present time the society has a large membership who are in deep sympathy with the work of reform for the prisoner.

MR. D. C. MOORE DEAD.

One of Pitt County's Most Valuable Citizens Passes Away.

Many Wilmington friends of Mr. Thomas J. Moore, teller in the Murchison National Bank, this city, will tenderly sympathize with him and there will be sorrow among many friends and acquaintances throughout the State upon the announcement of the death of Mr. Moore's father, Mr. D. C. Moore, of Greenville, N. C., which occurred yesterday morning rather suddenly. Mr. Moore had been in poor health for some weeks, but his condition had shown some improvement after a visit to Seven Springs and he had expected to come to Wilmington next week to spend some time with his son at Wrightsville Beach. Mr. Moore was, therefore, totally unprepared for a telegram which reached him yesterday morning stating that his father had died suddenly. He and Mrs. Moore left last evening for Greenville to be with other members of the family and to attend the funeral which will be conducted today at the family burying ground near Bethel.

Mr. Moore was born in this State in 1850 and was, therefore, in the 64th year of his age. He had been clerk of the Superior court of Pitt county since 1898, a period of 16 years and doubtless would have been re-elected this fall for as many terms as he cared to serve. He had visited Wilmington several times and made a number of friends, impressing all with his courtly bearing, his strength of character and his geniality, being quite as well at home with those of the younger generation as with those more nearly his own years. His death is a great loss to Pitt county and to the State.

Mr. Moore is survived by his wife and four sons, all grown, Messrs. Thos. J. Moore, of this city; Andrew J. Moore, A. Thurman Moore and D. C. Moore, Jr., of Greenville, N. C., all occupying prominent places in the business world of today. Mr. and Mrs. Moore, of this city, expected to reach Greenville last night about midnight.

Mr. Moore served as justice of the peace for 20 years prior to his election as clerk of the Superior court. He was a member of the General Assembly from 1878 to 1880, was mayor of Bethel from 1876 to 1896, for two years was a member of the board of education and for three years deputy register of deeds. He was a most efficient public official.

ROADS CONVENTION.

New Hanover Should be Well Represented in Durham in July.

Chairman M. S. Willard, of the Board of County Commissioners, has been asked by Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt to name ten delegates from New Hanover, to the State Good Roads meeting in Durham July 9 and 10, and he is now preparing a list of those who can attend, as it is especially desired that New Hanover have a large representation at the meeting. Mr. Willard states that he will be glad to appoint anyone who can attend the meeting and represent the county. An outline of the meeting in Durham was given in yesterday's paper.

Two Trips to Southport Today.

The steamer Wilmington will make her usual two Sunday trips to Carolina Beach and Southport today, leaving her wharf this morning at 9 o'clock and this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The boat will leave at 7:30 o'clock tonight for Carolina. There will no doubt be a large number of people who will go down to spend a day at the popular beach resort.

—Mr. M. A. Duke left Wednesday for Norfolk and Roanoke, Va., where he will spend some time resting. Before returning to the city he will visit relatives and friends at Newbern and Morehead City.

EDUCATIONAL CLASSES FOR Y. W. C. A. MEMBERS.

The vice president in charge of the educational work of the Y. W. C. A. wishes to call the attention of those interested that a register has been placed at the Y. W. C. A. for all those who desire to enter classes during the fall. Any woman or girl who desires to secure instruction in any branch may register name and class desired. When a sufficient number have been enrolled an instructor will be employed.

The class fees will be small and it is hoped to be able to arrange free instruction in English and mathematics for one night in the week. Teachers of ability have offered to give lessons in these branches.

The outlook for a large class in physical culture is bright. Those who wish to become members of the gymnasium class are requested to register at the building so that some idea of the number desiring instruction can be gained before a physical director is employed.

The educational committee is especially desirous of organizing classes in dressmaking, millinery, typewriting, stenography, bookkeeping, domestic science, English and mathematics. Anyone interested in this work who will volunteer her services for one night in the week for instruction in any of these subjects may communicate with the general secretary, who will notify the officer in charge.

CRIMINAL TERM OF SUPERIOR COURT TUESDAY.

Judge Charles M. Cooke Will Preside. Two Weeks' Session.

Superior court for the trial of criminal cases will be convened Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock by Judge Charles M. Cooke, of Louisburg, and will continue in session for two weeks. There are two capital cases to be tried at this term, one being a murder case and the other for burglary. There are also several cases for storebreaking. it is also expected that certain women of the city will be tried on a charge of conducting disorderly houses.

The murder case to be tried is that against Sandy McKoy, colored, who is charged with the murder of John Graham, also colored, on the night of April 4th. Both negroes with several others were engaged in a crap game in Brooklyn when the shooting occurred. McKoy says that it was accidental.

The other capital case is that against Ed Brinkley, colored, charged with burglary. It is alleged that he entered the home of Mr. James Howard on North Third street with felonious intent. He was found in the home by policemen.

Has Trouble With Chief.

Following the action of Chief Williams, of the police department, in suspending L. A. Justice, a member of the force, for being under the influence of whiskey yesterday afternoon, Justice last evening called upon the chief at his office at the city hall and made a vigorous protest against his superior's order, amounting, it was stated, to an attempted assault on the chief. Justice was locked up in the city prison upon orders of Chief Williams, to remain until he had sobered up.

Form Partnership.

Elsewhere in today's issue Messrs. E. C. Dixon and R. M. Kermon announce that they have formed a copartnership to do general electrical contracting. Both, though young men, are skilled electricians, and they will doubtless be successful in their partnership venture.

Goes With Kenny & Co.

Mr. Pierre M. Holmes, a clever young Wilmingtonian, formerly with the Holmes Grocery Co., after today will be with C. D. Kenny & Co., the new tea and coffee store on South Front street. He has a host of friends in the Wilmington retail trade who will be glad to welcome him at his new location.

Will Be Repaired.

The tug Ann Cora, which went aground 12 miles off Little River, S. C., while bound from Miami, Fla., to New York, was found to be in such condition that if the boat was pulled off it would sink. There were several board pulled off the bottom. When this damage is repaired, the vessel will then be floated. The tug Blanche, which went to the assistance of the tug, has returned to the city.

KAISER WELCOMES DAUGHTER-IN-LAW

COUNTESS BASERWITZ.

Countess Lena de Baserwitz, maid of honor to the Empress of Germany, has just been made happy through the withdrawal of the Kaiser's objections to her morganatic marriage to Prince Oscar, the fifth son of the Emperor of Germany. Though the countess is not of royal blood, she is a member of one of the oldest families in the German empire. The Kaiser at first strongly opposed the alliance and threatened to banish Prince Oscar.

Wrightsville Beach

There were more people in the surf yesterday afternoon than on any previous day of the season.

Mr. L. H. Simmons and family have moved to the beach and are now occupying cottage No. 93, just north of the Ocean Hotel.

Mr. Joe Patton, editor of the Charlotte Daily News, and family will arrive Thursday to spend several days at the Oceanic Hotel.

Mrs. E. R. Preston and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. W. Alexander, of Charlotte, arrived yesterday and are guests at the Seashore Hotel.

Mrs. Anna Grant and family have moved to the beach and are now occupying their new cottage which has just been built on the sound side of the beach near station No. 2.

Owing to the illness of Mr. West there was no exhibition dancing by him and Miss Chandler last night at Lumina. There was a large crowd present at the regular week-end dance.

Messrs. C. S. Meals and J. Shepherd Bryan, who will again be at the Oceanic Hotel this summer, arrived yesterday and will be at their post tomorrow at the opening. They received a cordial welcome from their many friends.

On account of the unusually oppressive heat yesterday afternoon Wilmington people flocked to the beach by the hundreds. The Tidewater was equal to the occasion and had plenty of cars in readiness.

Mrs. Mary C. Reynolds and Miss Margaret Reynolds, of Newport News, Va., mother and sister of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Reynolds, arrived yesterday to spend a short time with him at the Durham cottage.

Sunday school will be held in the chapel at Wrightsville Beach every Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock under the direction of Mrs. Cuthbert Martin. All cottagers and others on the beach are cordially invited to attend.

All is in readiness for the opening tomorrow of the Oceanic Hotel. Mr. C. E. Hooper, the popular and efficient manager, has everything spick and span and is most optimistic over the outlook. Practically all of his assistants have arrived and are now on the job.

The South Carolina Cottonseed Crushers' Association will hold its annual convention at the Seashore Hotel beginning Tuesday and continuing through Thursday. It is expected that there will be a hundred or more members in attendance.

Yesterday's Charlotte Observer: "Mr. and Mrs. Ben J. Smith and children, Clark, Margaret and Ben J. Smith, Jr., will leave tomorrow for Wrightsville Beach. Mrs. Smith will be away some time if the baby, who has been sick for several weeks, improves."

Included in the arrivals at the Seashore Hotel yesterday were E. V. Finlayson, Charlotte; M. F. Eskin, Louisville, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Well, Atlanta, Ga.; F. G. Anton, Harrisburg, Pa.; A. Summerfield, H. H. Showman and O. W. Baron, Baltimore, Md.; W. D. Hulton and J. H. Roper, Spartanburg, S. C.; T. G. Williams, Richmond, Va., and E. H. Thomson, Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. W. E. Pennington, of Tarboro, "The Old Reliable," who will again be chief clerk at the Oceanic this season, came in Friday and is now safely domiciled on the beach. He has been on the beach so many summers now that most of his friends have forgotten when the first one was. Besides being one of the cleverest hotel men that ever smiled across a hotel counter, he is also a master hand at telegraphing and in connection with his other duties will keep Wrightsville Beach in touch with the outside world.

Following is the program of selections which will be rendered by Elam's orchestra at the Seashore Hotel today from 12 until 2 o'clock:

Polonaise Militaire, Chopin.
La Boheme, Puccini.
Serenade, Drigo.
Humoreske, Dvorak.
Overture, Morning, Night and Noon, Suppe.

Intermission.

Creme de la Creme, Tobani.
Prelude, Rachmaninoff.
L'Invitation a la Valse, Weber.
Minuett, Paderewski.
Henry VIII Dances, German.

Mr. H. T. Bauman, the popular bookkeeper at the Oceanic Hotel, is minus a good suit of blue serge clothes and has instead a suit of the kind peculiar to convict camps. The exchange was not of his choosing, however. Last year when the hotel was closed he had a suit of clothes for which he had no particular use and left it behind in his room. Last winter when several convicts escaped from the county convict camp, it seems that one of them crossed over to the beach and found rest in the Oceanic by breaking open a window. He found also this suit of clothes to hand and quickly made the change, leaving behind his old togs.

The two most important features in the program arranged by Mr. Richardson for the concert to be given at Lumina tonight are Luigini's "Egyptien Ballet Suite" in four parts, and "Traumerei," by Schumann. The latter will be played by a string quintette and organ. Other numbers in the program that will prove popular are a Clarinet solo by Mr. Schmuler, the clarinetist of the orchestra, "Zaamee;" Victor Herbert's "Babes in Toyland" and a selection from the opera "Martha." The afternoon concert will consist of popular airs. Below are given the complete program for the night concert, which begins at 8:30 o'clock:

1. "Angus Del" (Lamb of God), Bizet.
2. "Spanish Dances" (Nos. 1 and 3, Brahms.
3. "Zamee (Arabian Intermezzo), Muir.
4. Clarinet solo (Valse, op. 64 No. 2, Chopin. (Mr. Calman Schmuler.
5. "Ballet Egyptien," Luigini.
   (a) "Allegro mon troppo"
   (b) "Andante Sostenuta."
   (b) "Andante and finale."
6. "Babes in Toyland," Victor Herbert.
7. Reverie ("Traumerei,") Schumann.
   "Am Camin" (Fireside).
   (String quintette and organ).
8. Excerpa from the Opera "Martha," Flotow.

How to Save Yous Eyes

Try This Free Prescription.

Do your eyes give you trouble? Do you already wear eyeglasses or spectacles? Thousands of people wear these "windows" who might easily dispense with them. You may be one of these, and it is your duty to save your eyes before it is too late. The eyes are neglected more than any other organ of the entire body. After you finish your day's work you sit down and rest your muscles, but how about your eyes? Do you rest them? You know you do not. You read or do something else that keeps your eyes busy; you work your eyes until you go to bed. That is why so many have strained eyes and finally other eye troubles that threaten partial or total blindness. Eyeglasses are merely crutches; they never cure. This free prescription, which has benefited the eyes of so many may work equal wonders for you. Use it a short time. Would you like your eye troubles to disappear as if by magic? Try this prescription. Go to the nearest drug store and get a bottle of Optona tablets; fill a two-ounce bottle with warm water, drop in one tablet and allow it to thoroughly dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. Just note how quickly your eles clear up and how soon the inflammation will disappear. Don't be afraid to use it; it is absolutely harmless. Many who ahe now blind might have been saved their eyes had they started to care for them in time. This is a simple treatment, but marvelously effective in multitudes of cases. Now that you have been warned, don't delay a day but do what you can to save your eyes, and you are likely to thank us as long as you live for publishing this prescription.

TARBORO MAN INDORSED

For Recorder of Deeds for District of Columbia—If Negro Is Fired.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., June 13.—Jas. B. Lloyd, of Tarboro, has been endorsed for recorder of deeds for the District of Columbia. Should President Wilson decide to fire Franklin Johnson, the Republican incumbent, Mr. Lloyd, it is believed, is sure to succeed him.

Mr. Wilson wants to fire the negro but would like to appoint a Democratic colored man in his place. Southern senators, however, say they will never allow a negro to be confirmed. Mr. Wilson claims his campaign managers promised the colored voters that should Johnson be fired another negro would be named in his place.

R. R. Ross was nominated today for postmaster at Asheboro and R. H. Davis at Louisburg.

Davie to Get Road Money.

It now looks like Davie county will get all of the Federal road money and that Davidson county will be eliminated when the money is spent. Senators Simmons and Overman will settle the matter definitely Monday.

WILSON AND CABINET PLAN TRIP THROUGH CANAL.

Will Attend Formal Opening and Go On to San Francisco.

Washington, June 13.—President Wilson will leave Washington on March 5, 1915, for Panama to attend formal opening ceremonies of the Panama Canal at a date to be determined later; will pass through the canal with the cabinet on the old battleship Oregon and then proceed to San Francisco.

Secretary Daniels today announced the President's plans so far as they have been completed. Inasmuch as the date of departure is more than eight months off some minor details may be changed but the essentials have been definitely determined.

Mr. Wilson will leave the capital the day after Congress adjourns. He probably will make the journey to Panama on a warship. The date of the formal opening ceremonies for the canal will be decided before the President leaves here and the exercises will take place soon after he reaches there.

On the bridge of the old battleship Oregon which attracted world-wide attention on her famous run around the Horn just before the Spanish war, the President with members of his cabinet will make the first official passage through the canal and then proceed to the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco.

The date of the President's arrival there had not been determined today nor the date of his return East. All of that will be arranged later and to an extent is dependent upon events intervening.

WILSON, APOSTLE OF PEACE.

Bryan Grateful for Being Named Secretary of State by President.

Washington, June 13.—Declaring the United States is the greatest factor in the movement toward peace, Secretary Bryan, speaking here today at the Flag day celebration in the Postoffice Department, said ideas regarding what constituted the strength of nations had undergone a change.

"Formerly power was thought to be dependent on the number of battleships or muskets that a nation possessed," he said, "but that is not the idea today and it will be even less so tomorrow."

Mr. Bryan said he felt grateful he had been put in charge of the Department of State by a man who stands before the world as an apostle of peace.

KINSTON DRAWS COLOR LINE.

Races Not to Use Same Faucets at Public Fountains.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Kinston, N. C., June 13.—This town is probably the first in the country to draw the color line at public fountains. The mayor today ordered the installation of two sanitary faucets at each fountain, red for colored and white for whites, and instructed the police to enforce the separation.

THEATRICAL

Big audiences were the order of both the day and night yesterday at the popular, cool-as-an-icicle Grand Theatre. Each immense-sized audience was tremendously pleased, too, as The Grand flashed on its large screen (a feature within itself) the best array of moving pictures ever presented in Wilmington. With a glorious show tomorrow The Grand will open another big week, the biggest in its history, as the preparations for the week well show. Tomorrow's great show is headed by Edison's latest, masterful two-part special release, "The Unopened Letter." It is a drama with a grip, a thrill and with plenty of sweetness. It flashes the story of a young country lawyer who goes to the city to make his fortune. He becomes separated from his wife and does not know of the birth of his child. The wife dies and years later the father defends a big damage suit against a factory, and discovers that the plaintiff, who has been injured, is his daughter. The court room scene well rivals that in "Madame X" and "The Butterfly on Wheels." The popular romantic actor, Edward Earle, heads the notable cast. Tomorrow also the first Hearst-Selig periodical film of current events will make its appearance. Yet another fine one tomorrow is "A Salt Mackerel Mine."

Monday at the Bijou.

Yes, there's still something new, big and wonderful yet to be shown at the popular photoplay house. They haven't shown 'em all yet. And next Thursday will be feature day of the week at the Bijou, when will be presented that mammoth photoplay, the biggest thing of the kind ever staged for the movies, "In the Stretch." This will be the greatest spectacular race track drama ever produced in motion pictures, with famous horses, famous owners, bookmakers, betting ring, grandstands, paddocks and fields. It will depict real races, by real jockeys, on a real track, and there is no padding, no faking and no substitutes, in this mammoth production. It is four full reels of the most spectacular movies you have ever seen, and while it has been packing 'em in at 25 cents a throw in other towns, the Bijou will show this mammoth feature for the first time for 10 cents admission.

For tomorrow's show the Bijou will have a big feature, in a two-reel 101 Bison picture, "Cast Adrift in the South Seas." This is a mammoth production in two full reels, and features such screen stars as Marie Walcamp, Wm. Clifford, and others. It's an exciting story, full of thrills and spectacular climaxes, and will be a winner heading Monday's big bill at the biggest and coolest of Wilmington's movie theatres.

"The Joys of a Chaperone" is a mammoth Frontier comedy, in a full reel, and is a scream from beginning to end. It will convulse you with good healthy laughter.

Also there will be a mammoth Keystone Comedy, one of the biggest yet in this series of high class laugh pictures. All for the insignificant sum of five cents.

FALL FROM WAGON FATAL.

Farmer Near Farmville Loses His Life.

Greenville, N. C., June 13.—Mr. Dock Skinner was the victim of a fatal accident near Farmville. He was hauling oats when his team became frightened and he was thrown off the oats on which he was riding. At first he was not thought to be much hurt but grew worse and died this morning, complications having arisen, for which medical aid could give no relief.

Cars to Seaforth.

The Tidewater Power Company will operate a car service to Seaforth, the southern extension of Wrightsville Beach, this afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock. The line from Lumina to Masonboro Inlet has just been completed, and the cars this afternoon will be the first operated over the new line. Messrs. King & Seigler, the owners of Seaforth, have completed about 1,500 feet of the board walk leading south from Lumina, and plan to have the walk completed all the way to Masonboro Inlet within the next 20 days. A local car service will be operated this afternoon, passengers for Seaforth transferring at Lumina.

PERKINS AND PINCHOT IN PROGRESSIVE ROW

1-GEORGE W. PERKINS
2-AMOS PINCHOT

Chicago, June 13.—Progressives in the Middle West and Pacific coast States are watching with interest the split between George W. Perkins and Amos R. E. Pinchot. Mr. Perkins is chairman of the executive committee of the National Progressive committee. He is accused by Mr. Pinchot who is an ardent Progressive, with be-who is an arden Progressive, with being a friend of the trusts and an enemy of organized labor. Mr. Pinchot seeks Mr. Perkins' removal from the leadership of the party. It is likely that Colonel Roosevelt, who is a warm friend of both, will take a hand in the rumpus on his return from Spain.

INDEPENDENT LEAGUE PLAYS TWO GAMES.

Immanuels Defeated Tigers and Wrightsboro Downed Stags.

The Federal League of Wilmington, in other words, the Independents, are dishing up some of the highest class ball obtainable in amateur circles, and pulled off two more bang-up games on the Hilton diamond yesterday afternoon.

Wrightsboro put it over the Stags in the first engagement by a score of eight to five. Both teams played excellent ball, but special mention is due "Skeet" James, who obtained a home run and two doubles, and played a star game at second base besides.

The batteries were, for Wrightsboro, H. Jones and Cashwell, for the Stags, Bornemann and Twining.

The Immanuels won the second contest from the Tigers, in a rather loosely played game, but exciting nevertheless, the game being tied up twice during the nine innings which it ran.

Bob Kerr, the captain of the Immanuels, sewed the game up for his team with two three-baggers with the bases congested each time, the score being 10 to 5. Batteries: Tigers, Glover and Smith and Silverman; Immanuels, Griffith and Todd.

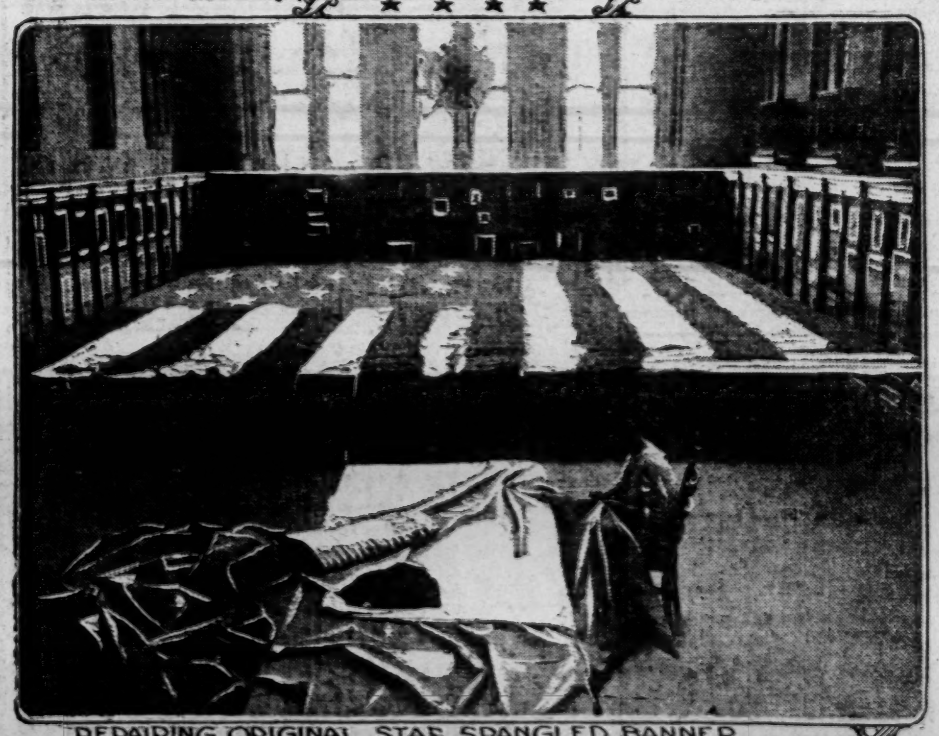
ORIGINAL AMERICAN FLAG THAT INSPIRED "SRAR SPANGLED BANNER" SAVED FROM AGE



REPAIRING ORIGINAL STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Washington, June 12.—To preserve it from disintegrating due to age the original flag that flew over Fort McHenry at Baltimore during the War of 1812 with England is being repaired by the expert needlewoman of the government. It was this flag that inspired Francis Scott Key to write "The Star Spangled Banner," in 1814, just 100 years ago, the centenary of which will be observed with an elaborate celebration at Baltimore.

EPWORTH LEAGUE STATE CONVENTION THIS WEEK

Several Hundred Young People From Eastern Half of North Carolina to Gather in Wilmington — Several Notable Speakers From This and Other States to be Heard.

The annual meeting of the North Carolina Epworth League Conference which will be held at Fifth Street Methodist church this week, beginning Wednesday evening and continuing through Sunday night, will bring to the city several hundred young people from all sections of Eastern North Carolinafi There will be notable addresses by several of the prominent religious leaders of the Southern Methodist church, including Rev. Dr. F. S. Parker, of Nashville, Tenn., general secretary of the Epworth League of the Southern Methodist church; Rev. Dr. G. T. Rowe, presiding elder of the Greensboro district; Rev. H. M. North, presiding elder of the Durham district; Rev. R. L. Davis, superintendent of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League; Rev. Walter Patton, of Chapel Hill, and Mr. W. V. Martin, of Georgia.

The visitors will be entertained at the homes of the members of Fifth Street church and of the other Methodist churches in the city. Committees have been appointed to look after the various details of caring for them while they are in Wilmington, and no pains will be spared to make this the most successful and the most enjoyable convention that the North Carolina Leaguers have ever had.

It is peculiarly fitting that the league should meet with the Fifth Street Epworth League, which is one of the largest in Southern Methodism and is also one of the most energetic. This league has recently expended more than $1,000 in church improvements and have also given large sums for outside work. Not only have the young people of this church given liberally of their means but they are also actively engaged in the religious work of the church.

Following are the officers of the North Carolina Epworth League: President, Prof. S. B. Underwood, Greenville; first vice president, Rev. J. H. Buffaloe, Garner; second vice president, Rev. J. M. Ormond, Hillsboro; third vice president, Miss Gertrude Royster, Raleigh; fourth vice president, Prof. W. A. Bryan, Durham; secretary, Miss Lizzie Hancock, Newbern; treasurer, Mr. W. R. Newbury, Magnolia; superintendent junior league, Miss Iver Ellis, Durham.

The conference will open Wednesday evening with devotional exercises following which Mayor Parker Quince Moore will welcome the visiting delegates in behalf of the city. Rev. L. E. Thompson will welcome them in the name of Wilmington Methodism and Mr. Hiram R. King for the Fifth Street League. The response will be made by Mr. W. A. Graham, of Raleigh. After the reading of a paper entitled, "The History of the Epworth League in North Carolina," by Miss Lizzie Hancock, the delegates will be enrolled and announcements made.

Thursday morning after devotional exercises there will be a round table discussion on the devotional department of the league which will be led by Rev. J. H. Buffaloe, conference first president. This will be followed by a round table discussion of the work of the social service department which will be led by Rev. J. H. Ormond, conference second vice president.

At 11 o'clock there will be an address on "Temperance Reform," by Rev. R. L. Davis, of Raleigh, secretary of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League. This will be followed by reports from a number of the local Epworth elagues.

Thursday night at 8 o'clock there will be an address by Rev. Dr. F. S. Parker, of Nashville, Tenn., general secretary of the Epworth League of the Southern Methodist church.

Friday morning after the reading of the reports of the remaining Epworth leagues of the conference there will be a round table discussion of the work of the missionary department which will be led by Prof. W. A. Bryan, conference fourth vice president.

The afternoon will be given over to social features and Friday night at 8 o'clock an address will be made by Mr. W. V. Martin, a prominent Epworth League worker of the South Georgia Conference.

Saturday morning there will be an informal discussion of the work of the literature department which will be led by Miss Gertrude Royster, conference third vice president. This will be followed by an address on "The be followed by an address on "The Knights of Ezelah," by H. A. Humble, of Laurinburg. The meeting will close with a discussion of the junior league by Miss Iver Ellis, of Durham.

Saturday evening there will be an address by Mr. W. V. Martin.

The annual sermon will be preached Sunday morning at 11 o'clock by Rev. Dr. G. T. Rowe, of Greensboro, presiding elder of the Greensboro district. After the sermon the newly-elected officers will be installed. Special music will be furnished by the league quartet.

The conference will close Sunday night with a consecration service which will be conducted by Rev. Walter Patton, of Chapel Hill. Special music will be provided on this occasion by the Acme Male Quartette.

A special feature of the meetings will be the early morning prayer services at 6:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. H. M. North, of Durham, presiding elder of the Durham district. Mr. North will be present during the entire conference and will take part in all the discussions.

NEW AMBASSADOR TO FRANCE IS CHOSEN

Congressman Sharpe of Ohio Succeeds Mr. Herrick

Washington, June 12.—President Wilson today chose Representative William Graves Sharp, of Elyria, Ohio, to be ambassador to France, and sent his nomination to the Senate. Mr. Sharp, a Democrat will succeed Myron T. Herrick, of Cleveland, the last of the ambassadors holding over from the Taft administration. The post to which Representative Sharp has been appointed was the center of speculation the day President Wilson was inagurated when it became known it had been offered to William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee. Later when Mr. McCombs decided not to take the post it was said Secretary McAdoo was being considered.

Mr. Sharp is 55 years old, a lawyer and manufacturer.

Petersburg, Va., June 12. — Plans for the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary by local Sons of Veterans of the famous battle of the Crater, on July 30th, were abandoned tonight. No reason was given for the decision.

With the Man in The Street

Popular but Friendless—Recently the Man in the Street noted the following sentence in one of Gouverneur Morriss' stories: "He was popular, and had no friends." Morriss' characters are usually true to life, and the above statement is a true to type as was ever written, strange as it may seem on first thought.

For a man to be popular and yet have no friends seems almost an impossibility, yet most of us, if we will stop to think, can call to mind several such men.

Usually they are brilliant, polished, cultured, ready conversationalists, good story tellers, and more or less successful in whatever they may undertake. But somewhere in their makeup is a kink that throws over their real inner personality a reserve that balks any of the finer characteristics of true friendship. No matter how much one may associate with such a man, and how congenial he may be, beyond that wall of reserve the acquaintance never progresses. One can never really know such a man.

And in spite of his success, popularity and all his other accomplishments, the man without a friend makes a hopeless failure of life in one of its most perfect aspects. He is the loser in the end.

A Moment's Musing—Outside the window, as this is written, the June full moon floats in a sky flecked here and there with fleecy, white clouds, and the waters of the little pool in the center of the park in front of the office are touched with a beautiful silver light, that fades and grows in intensity as the moon drifts in or out from behind one of the cloud shadows.

Here and there the sky line is broken with a church spire lifting its point into the clouds, or the ghostly outline of a tree, its leaves a shimmering silver in the half light.

Quiet prevails, save for the faint rattle of a night hawk's carriage on another street, the hum of an electric fan in an adjoining room, the stacco chatter of the A. P. telegraph wire, and the steady clatter of the linotype machines in the rear of the building.

The city's asleep, and the pure white beauty of a perfect night is unseen and unappreciated save for those few whose duties hold them through the hours when others rest.

The scene is an inspiration, but the interpretation of its beauty calls for something more expressive than mere words. Perhaps some master musician might put it into a wonderful sonata, or a great artist spread an expression of it upon canvas, but mere words are crippled, stilted things at most, and utterly fail one in such instances.

From a Glass House—A frowsy, dowdy, vaucuous-faced, blondined little chorus girl from one of the so-called musical comedy companies that have been inflicted on the theatre-going populace of late, in company with another of her kind, strolled past a certain popular ice cream parlor several days ago. Seated at one of the tables were two Wilmington young ladies, whose charm lies in their delightful personalities, rather than in any superabundance of facial beauty.

Little Miss frowsiness glanced through the window at them screwed her vacant little face up into an expression presumably meant to denote much worldly wisdom, and observed, to her companion:

"My Gawd, but there's some queens in this burg, ain't they?"

Many Interruptions—It was commencement week and Mr. John J. Blair superintendent of the city graded Schools, was a busy man. Nevertheless it was up to the Reporter to get a few facts relative to the finals and he set out on a search for them. He located Mr. Blair at the Union School and found him in the midst of work. At that particular time he was signing certificates for the grammar school students.

"Come in," said he in his usual cordial manner. "I will be through in just a minute."

Hardly had he gotten to work again before one of the lady teachers came in to speak about a pupil in her grade who had done such splendid work the past year that she thought the little girl ought to have special mention. Then came a student to speak about something of special importance to her. Then another teacher.

By the exercise of much patience Mr. Blair at last got the certificates signed and then the telephone rang. He answered it and started out. It rang again. He answered it again and assured some fond mother that her child should receive the proper credit for work done in a certain study.

However, before he could get down the steps it was necessary for him to stop and talk with a teacher about a certain book that she wanted him to look over and see if there weren't some things in it that he could use. There were numerous other interruptions, none of them of long duration, and for each teacher and for each child Mr. Blair had time to give patient attention.

At length he reached the street and started to his office at the High School building. The Reporter had been impressed with what he had seen and ventured to remark that it must be trying on a man's nerves.

"Worried? No indeed," he replied with a smile when asked if he didn't get tired of the grind. And it was easy to see that he was enjoying it and that the constant questioning and having to make decisions in all sorts of matters is a part of the joy of his work. And with such important work to do and with so much inspiration to be had in helping boys and girls, it is indeed a privilege to have such a responsibility.

After seeing the pleasure that he was getting out of it all the Reporter went back to his work with more zeal and with the determination to think less about the grind of his daily toil and more about its possibilities for service.

Mr. E. C. Wooten—A friend of mankind, is the way the 'Man in the Street,' who writes for The Wilmington Star so interestingly every Sunday, characterizes Mr. E. C. Wooten, The Star's traveling representative. And it is even so. The editor of The Tribune has known Mr. Wooten ever since we have known anybody, and he is a man that carries sunshine and gladness with him all the time. Truly, as The Star says, not for the world would he say a word that would hurt the moct harmless of God's creatures. He believes in preaching the gospel of good cheer and as he visits the various towns in this section he carried with him a halo of optimism that is as refreshing as an afternoon shower on a dry summer day. The Star further says: "Mr. Wooten is first, last and all the time a man of heart, of sympathy and of soul. Not for the dollars he makes, does he work, but for the good he can do, for the sake of the friends he makes, for the devoted family he leaves at home. That is a good word picture of E. C. Wooten; we know him."—Lumberton Tribune.

He Scared the Negro—The other afternoon Plainclothesman Leon George, who has a reputation as a Holy Terror to the idlers in this city, started to arrest a negro for vagrancy. The darkey saw the officer coming and was so badly scared that he had an epileptic fit—at least that is the way Mr. George's associates say it happened.

Mr. George has a slightly different story about the matter. He says that he saw the negro and that from the way he acted he thought he was drunk. When he approached him to see what was the matter, the negro fell to the graund in an unconscious state.

Anyway the poor fellow had to be taken to the hospital for treatment. That much is agreed upon by both Mr. George and his associates. But as to the cause of his being taken there there is divergence of opinion.

Another Dog—He's a very small dog of the species fice, and from the humility of his bearing and the wistful look in his eyes, one would infer that he realizes the handicap of his small size, and lowly birth.

But he recently adopted a certain well known young man about town, and the two have become boon companions. And its touching to watch the worshipful, adoring, trusting expression in the little dog's eyes as he looks up into the face of the young man, who not only condescends to let him appear in public in his company but also occasionally stoops from the heights of of manhood and bestows a caressing pat on the little canine's head.

And as popular as this young man is, the Man in the Street has no hesitancy in venturing the assertion that he has no truer friend than this same little black and tan dog.

BOOSTING TOWN.

Budget of News Notes from the Capital of Wilson.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wilson, N. C., June 12.—Members of the Wilson chamber of commerce, traveling in automobiles, visited Stantonsburg yesterday boosting Wilson and the coming chautauqua. This was the initial trip and others will follow, until the entire territory of the town is covered. Interest in the Chautauqua is growing daily and the prospect is for a record breaking attendance.

Rev. C. G. Prosperi, who for several months has been priest in charge of the work at St. Timothy's Episcopal church, has been notified by the bishop of this diocese that he will be transferred to other work September 1st. Rev. Mr. Prosperi has made many friends during his stay in Wilson and they regret the change. In the meantime the vestry has granted Mr. Prosperi a month's vacation and he leaves next week for Statesville and will later spend some time at the University of Virginia summer school.

Robert Williams, a trusty, escaped from the county force Wednesday night and a reward has been offered for his capture. Williams was serving a sentence of six months for burglary.

The singing class of the Goldsboro Orphanage gave a delightful entertainment to a large audience at the Lyceum Thursday night under the auspices of the local lodge of Odd Fellows.

Everybody Admires a Good-Looking Woman

Wherever you go you hear people comment upon this or that pretty woman and it is really her beautiful hair more than perfect features that gives the appearance of charm, youth and beauty.

Any woman can merit this praise for beautiful hair is only a matter of care. Just as a plant needs attention and nourishment so must the hair have care and nutriment to make it grow long, thick, soft, fluffy and lustrous. The scalp must be free from dandruff, and the hair roots properly nourished, as nature intended.

Parisian Sage, which is delicately perfumed, is easily applied, is just what is needed. It tones up and invigorates the roots of the hair and furnishes the necessary element to make it grow long, soft, abundant and full of life.

One application of this scientific tonic removes every trace of dandruff and cleanses the hair of dust and excessive oil.

Why not start now to beautify the hair by using Parisian Sage, the great tonic treatment? It is inexpensive and easily applied at home. It can be had from Robt. R. Bellamy, or drug and toilet counters everywhere, and will surely do wonders for your hair.

"CABIRIA"
A "REEL" MASTERPIECE

SOPHONISBA AT HER MIRROR.

"OUR MUTUAL GIRL" AND THE CHICKENS

Mutual Movie Actors Have Longer Fall Than Intended

MUTUAL MOVIE ACTORS FALLING 120 FEET

Actors who take part in "thrills" that are designed to entertain spectators at motion picture theaters often assume risks that were not intended, and they occasionally suffer injuries that are serious, if not fatal. It is not always possible to perform a stunt just the way it was planned, and some of the feats shown on the screen were even more dangerous than they seem.

Arthur Mackley and Vesper Pegg, actors appearing in Reliance and Majestic Mutual Movies, recently tumbled 120 feet down the side of a mountain and lived not only to tell their experience, but to repeat it. They added a thrill to the film that the director or writer of the scenario had never expected.

Mackley and Pegg were cast for roles in "The Angel of the Gulch," and their work required them to engage in a desperate fight on the edge of a canyon down which they were to fall. They had figured on dropping about six feet, but in the rehearsal they miscalculated the steepness of the declivity, and, clasped in each other's arms, they rolled and tumbled to the bottom of the canyon. They were badly bruised, but after straightening themselves out they found that no bones were broken.

The unexpected fall made such a strong impression on the cameraman who had watched it that he was directed to get his machine in readiness to photograph the tremendous tumble, and Mackley and Pegg went through with it again while the photographer turned the crank and perpetuated the entire fall from the top of the cliff to its termination, 120 feet below.

Writing the Photoplay
BY TAYLOR BUCHANAN

Let us look at the matter of photoplaying calmly. Let us take it apart and see if there is really anything in it. I was going to say, if there was any money in it, but no writer starts in with the idea of making money. Fame is the goal of every writer, but they seldom miss the mark of getting large pay for their work when fame comes.

Photoplay writing is different from play writing or story writing, in that every thought must be capable of being expressed in action. When you write a story all you have to do is to write down what you think, but when you write a photoplay you must write what you see; that is, you must visualize.

Instead of trying to write a scenario, as a script of a motion picture story is called, without any experience the best way to learn is to see the play first, and then sit down and write what you see.

You may or may not be able to write a story about something of which you know nothing, and deceive the editor; but you cannot outwit the moving picture man or his camera.

The camera never lies. It must tell the truth, so that the audience knows exactly what the play is about.

What are you to write about?

The things that are nearest you. The fact that you live in a small town is all the better, for nothing interests city people like the doings of country folks. Just at present there is a demand for war pictures—both of the Civil War and of the war in Mexico. This would suggest to a bright scenario writer the idea of a scenario the plot of which is laid in an apple orchard, and the battle takes place between small boys. This would not be making fun of actual war, but would be comic and timely.

Write of the ordinary things of life—the conversation of two servants over the back fence.

You always hear the cry of "action," and always "action" when it comes to moving pictures, because something which is not moving cannot be told in pictures. Suppose John is thinking of Jane as he sits in his bedroom. What is there to show that he is thinking of her? Nothing! Ah, he goes to the bureau and gets a letter from her. At once the audience is taken into your confidence.

The advantage of writing moving picture stories over writing fiction lies in the fact that there are hundreds of companies in the picture business to one magazine, and the latter is published once a week or once a month, while many pictures are released in moving picture houses every day.

Then again, a beautiful idea is wasted on an editor because of the English used, while a moving picture editor is looking for ideas, and almost any one has good ideas, which, if written clearly, can be made into scenarios. The editors and directors of companies take ideas and treat them in the way best suited to their purposes, which are not always known to editors. So the writer will do well to submit a synopsis before he submits a scenario, and, above all, get his name before editors.

There is just one person who stands between you and success, and that person is yourself. Get your system full of determination and—keep writing.

LILLIAN GISH
MAJESTIC MUTUAL MOVIES

Lovely Lillian Gish, the pretty little blonde star of the Majestic Company, is one of the youngest moving picture actresses on the screen today. Although only 17 years old, she has had a varied experience on the legitimate stage, having played many parts since she was six years old. As Little Eva in "Uncle Tom's Cabin" Miss Gish became famous all over the country.

It is due to the keen foresight of that famous director, D. W. Griffith, that we can view with so much pleasure the many clever impersonations of this versatile little actress on the screen today; for he discovered this "child wonder," and, with his wonderful technique in directing, he developed all the latent qualities in Lillian Gish, so that today she stands as one of our foremost film stars, with the promise of a brilliant future.

Miss Gish owes a great deal to the interest Mr. Griffith has taken in her work; but the fates have been indeed kind to her, as she is gifted with exquisite beauty of face and form, and no little amount of common sense for one so young. One needs but to read the sweet little face to detect that herein lies seriousness of purpose, determination to rise above all difficulties, and, after all, that is the secret of success

SCREEN FASHIONS
BY AGNES KESSLER

In the accompanying picture a lovely little star appears in a gorgeous creation of pink charmeuse. The bodice is of green velvet, caught over the shoulders with rhinestone bands. The skirt is beautifully caught up in the back, the entire costume forming an ideal draping for her graceful form. This clever little actress does some splendid work as an adventuress in "Fogg's Millions." This photoplay will be released shortly, and will be looked for with great interest.

Recently I saw her in "Cupid Versus Money," and I was quite impressed by the pretty model of a costume she wore. It was of pussy willow taffeta in that new shade of blue. The waist was surplice effect, simple and pretty, with short sleeves, while the skirt had a double pouf, making a very effective combination of blouse and skirt. Very modish, to say the least.

This style is one of the reigning crazes in Paris and will be worn very much both this spring and summer.

"The Thanhouser Twins"

MARION and MADELINE FAIRBANKS

Their names are Marion and Madeline Fairbanks, but they have been known so long as "The Thanhouser Twins" that they sometimes forget that they have any other names. But these clever misses have now reached the dignified age of thirteen years, and so they want their real names used.

Giving them their names will not enable their friends to identify them any more easily, for Marion might be Madeline and Madeline might be Marion. Each weighs seventy-four pounds, and they are the same height, four feet ten inches. They have curly hair of the same shade of brown, and their eyes are the same dark hazel.

The twins were on the regular dramatic stage before being seen in the movies. They appeared in "The Prince Chap," "Mary Jane's Pa" and in "Snow White."

CHINA, SLEEPING GIANT OF NATIONS, IS AWAKE

Great Forces Fighting for Control of the Greatest Nation the World Has Ever Known—Chinese Leaders Realize That Her Awakening is Due to Christian Missions—Critical Hour in Foreign Missions, and Adequacy of Christianity as a World Religion is on Trial—Filipinos Reverse Policy and Abolish Slavery.

The Chinese are the greatest nation the world has ever known. For 4,000 years they have existed scarcely touched by world events. The Egyptians, Jews, Greeks, Romans, Spaniards and Frencn have risen to world eminence and declined in power. Some of the nations have passed out of existence. China remains. Nay, more! In spite of floods, famines and pestilences her population has increased. Today there are 423,000,000 Chinese. This is one-fourth of the world's population.

The great wall and the grand canal of China are the greatest national undertakings ever accomplished by any people.

For 3,000 years the Chinese have looked with contempt on all other nations. In their ignorance they thought that they dominated the world.

Their awakening has come.

During the comparatively recent past, foreign nations have seized many of her seaports and large slices of her domains. She has been forced to pay huge indemnities. Her merchants have been insulted. Great Britain forced the opium trade on her. Her people are being taught the white man's vice—the liquor habit. Nations are refusing to allow her citizens free entrance to their ports. The control of her great natural resources has been acquired by the hated foeigners.

Fifteen years ago the Japanese were a despised heathen nation. Today they are a world-power. Japan has only 60,000,000 people.

The Chinese have studied Japan's example. Their leaders are on fire with the desire to out-do Japan and make China's woldr influence felt.

During the past five years the Chinese have made greater reforms than the Japanese accomplished in any ten-year period.

Thirty-five years ago there was not a mile of railway in China. Today theer are 6,000 miles of modern railways. Thousands of miles of additional trackage is projected.

In 1880 there was not a telegraph line in China. In 1910 there were 28,124 miles of aerial lines, 50,000 miles of aerial wires, 1,001 miles of submarine cables. The most distant confines of the country are now in touch with one another.

China has possibly the world's greatest iron and coal deposits. She san construct cannons and navies for the world, as well as equip her own armies.

Civilized nations for centuries have shown their inability to grapple successfully with the liquor traffic. Large numbers of their people have been debauched in consequence.

Within the past ten years China has almost completely exterminated an even greater curse—the opium traffic. Within another decade she will have effected her freedom. This is a marvelous accomplishment.

Great forces are fighting to gain control of the nation.

One element is striving to turn the Chinese people against the white races. This element is translating and circulating great quantities of literature that is likely to inflame the minds of the Chinese against foreigners. Every riot against the Chinese is on the Pacific coast, is announced from the roof tops in China.

Gen. Gordon once said: "Given proper leadership, there are no better soldiers in the world than the Chinese." Well he might. They can live on next to nothing for days and weeks at a time. They can endure incredible hardships. They can march enormous distances.

In time, China will be able to place a modernly equipped army of 75,000,000 men in the field. This is greater than the combined armies of North and South America and all European nations combined. Well may we pay heed to the warning, uttered over 100 years ago by Napoleon, not to stir the sleeping giant.

China's one motive is that she may acquire the secret of the industrial, commercial, financial, military and naval power of the West. If we teach this heathen nation nothing but this, and do not tell them of our God of love, we will sow the wind and reap the whirlwind.

Christian forces are also active. Many of China's leaders realize that China's awakening is due largely to the efforts and teachings of the Christian missionaries. Christian hospitals, schools and mission stations have done a great work. Dr. Sun Yat Sen, the first President of the Chinese Republic, and many of her foremost statesmen are Christians. Many of her schools and colleges are under Christian teaching.

Chinese by thousands are flocking to the missionaries to learn Christian methods, and to hear about the Christians' God. They are deserting their idols and seeking for something that will better meet the new demands of their hearts.

To meet China with dreadnoughts and standing armies is to court the greatest war the world has ever seen. To send her missionaries and help her to meet and overcome her problems is to win her gratitude and esteem. This is a critical hour in foreign missions. Nothing less than the adequacy of Christianity as a world religion is on trial.—Mne and Missions.

Filipinos Abolish Slavery.

The Filipino national assembly has passed a law for the abolition of slavery in every form throughout the archipelago. A few years ago the assembly was opposed to such action on the ground that slavery did not actually exist, claiming that where it did exist in isolated cases it could be dealt with under the old Spanish laws. Now, however, the evidence unearthed by the American investigators has convinced the native body of legislators of the advisability of admitting conditions which they had believed were effectually hidden, and they have enacted a sweeping statute doing away with it forever.

A Notable Mission Gift.

The Spirit of Missions says that from Brazil recently came the news of what is undoubtedly one of the largest gifts ever made by a single donor to any of the distant missions. The gift was from Donna Gonzaya, who was formerly a member of the Roman communion. One of her cherished hopes is to see her church strongly established in Rio and provided with a worthy building. As the beginning of a building fund she has given her own home, valued at more than $10,000, and has gone to live with her companion in two rented rooms.

It is expected that for the present the house, slightly remodeled, will serve the purpose of a chapel. It is estimated that at least $100,000 will be needed to meet the situation of this denomination and erect a worthy church in this Brazilian capital, a cosmopolitan city of a million people.

All Heathen Nations Poor.

All heathen nations are poor. All Christian nations are rich. For example: Everything is taxed in Japan that is taxable. There is a land tax, a house tax, an inheritance tax, an income tax on yearly incomes which amount to $200 or more. There is a tax on merchants, the shops of artisans, bicycles, wagons, autos, carts, railway tickets, street car tickets, receipts, deeds and real estate documents. Patent medicines are taxed 10 per cent. The government has a monopoly on salt, and camphor, and tobacco, and telephone and telegraph lines. The farmer pays a yearly tax of 8 per cent. of the value of his rice land.

Educational Secretary of Japan.

The Rev. Horace E. Coleman, of the Friends' Mission, who was chairman of the committee on arrangements for the Heinz Oriental tour party of the World's Sunday School Association, has been chosen Sunday school educational secretary for Japan. He will arrive in this country in a short time and will post himself on the latest and best methods of religious education before his return to Japan.

From Many Lands.

The work of redeeming Africa falls into two great departments—Mohammedan and pagan. All northern Africa is under Moslem influence. That propaganda is spreading rapidly to the south and complicating the problem of reaching heathen tribes. There is no time to lose.

A conservative estimate of the American wealth in Mexico is $1,000,000; British wealth at half that amount, and Mexican wealth at $900,000,000. In other words, Americans and Englishmen own nearly twice as much of the wealth of Mexico as is owned by Mexicans.

"Of, our 25,000 Baptist churches more than 20,000 are rural, and not fewer than 18,000 of these meet for worship once a month. On any given Sunday over 14,000, more than half, of our churches are not opened for a preaching service. About 90 per cent. of the once-a-month churches have non-resident pastors. The average salary paid by 5,405 once-a-month churches in 256 associations was found to be $94.50."—Victor J. Masters, editorial secretary Home Mission Board Southern Baptist Convention.

The American government pays to Japan in one year about $80,000,000 on imports. Japan's two great fields for exports are China and the American continent.

In 1873 there was not in the whole empire of Japan a single preaching place. The one church of a dozen members met on the premises of a missionary under the protection of the United States flag.

The Rev. T. Ukai, chairman of the board of directors of the National Sunday School Association of Japan, is to attend the International Sunday School Convention at Chicago, with a number of Japanese Sunday school workers, in order to study the workings of a great convention. While in this country Mr. Ukai will be the guest of the World's Sunday School Association.

In the report on ministerial relief and sustentation, Presbyterian church, U. S. A., the number of contributing churches during the year is given as 5,339 as compared with 5,675 the year before; and the number of non-contributing churches 4,601, as compared with 4,161 the previous year.

USE GEESE TO HOE COTTON.

Charley Lutes Tries Out Novel Plan on His Big Plantation.

(Midway, Ky., Blue-Grass Clipper.)

The proposition of training monkeys to pick cotton has often been discussed by imaginative writers in the Southern States, but it has remained for a transplanted Kentuckian, who is making a big success of cotton planting in North Carolina, to put his geese to active and profitable work in his fields of cotton. This is what Charles Lutes is doing at his big plantation outside Goldsboro, N. C., according to report brought back here by William Wilcher, his brother-in-law, who is on a visit to his former home in Lincoln county.

Mr. Wilcher says that Mr. Lutes keeps a drove of 142 geese which he turns into his cotton fields behind the cultivators and that they do much better work in cleaning out grass and weeds than the same number of negroes could do with hoes in their hands. For some reason or other, the geese will not touch the cotton plants, but having been purposely kept away from green food, they make short work of anything else in the field. The geese are divided out into squads with two or three men as drivers behind them, and they are sent into the cotton fields on empty craws, right behind the cotton cultivators, and do the work that is required of them thoroughly and systematically.

Mr. Lutes was one of the best known cattle and mule dealers in Kentucky before locating in North Carolina a few years ago and he is making the same success there that he did here and on a larger scale. He has recently bought more plantation land and now has holdings amounting to about 1,000 acres, all lying close to Goldsboro. He has quite a large acreage in cotton this season and looks for a heavy crop, Mr. Wilcher says.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson XII.—Second Quarter, For June 21, 1914.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Mark x, 17-31. Memory Verses, 25-27—Golden Text, Luke xvi, 13—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

Our lessons for many weeks have been found only in Luke's gospel, but now we have one recorded with nearly equal fullness in Matthew, Mark and Luke. Why the committee should turn to Mark instead of Luke I cannot tell, but we will look at the harmony of the three records. The preceding passage concerning the little children is also found in these three gospels, but a little more fully in Mark, for he tells us that Jesus was much displeased with His disciples and also that He took the children up in His arms and blessed them (Mark x, 14, 16). Both Matthew and Mark say that He put His hands upon them. We shall not understand the lesson of today concerning the rich young ruler unless we get first that main thought concerning the children.

If the number of times that an event is recorded gives an idea of its importance these two items concerning the children and the young man must be of special importance and those recorded in each of the four gospels of still greater importance. The other records of this lesson are in Matt. xix, 16-30; Luke xviii, 18-30. Mark alone tells us that Jesus had gone forth into the way and that the young man came running and kneeled to Him. As in the case of Zaccheus, he was certainly in earnest and had no thought of his dignity as a rich man, for he ran and kneeled on the road. The next item is nearly the same in each record. "Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?" as is also our Lord's reply: "Why callest thou Me good? There is none good but one; that is God." If to this young man Jesus was God, then he should be willing to submit fully to Him. If He was not God He was not good and should not be so addressed. All who now profess to receive Jesus Christ as a good teacher, but will not believe that He is truly God, should side with the Pharisees and utterly reject Him for making Himself equal with God (John v, 18; x, 33).

The young man's question reminds us of another under different circumstances "What shall we do that we might work the words of God?" (John vi, 28.) Our Lord brought the young man face to face with the commandments with the desire to convince him of sin, that He might bestow upon him freely the eternal life which he seemed to be seeking so eagerly, but he did not see himself as a sinner and thought that he had kept all the commandments from his youth up. The heart of our Lord went out greatly to him, and Mark says that "Jesus, beholding him, loved him" (verse 21). Because He loved him He sought still further to convince him of sin, and by asking him to sell all he had and give to the poor he would show him that instead of keeping all the commandments he was continually breaking the first one by thinking more of his earthly possessions than of God, who gave them to him, and that while he seemed to want life eternal he really wanted his present possessions more than treasure in heaven and his present life in a mortal body was more to him than the life beyond. Only in Mark do we find that Jesus said to him, "Take up the cross." The cross means dying to self and wealth and all that comes between us and God, and he was not ready for it. It was a hard proposition, but the Lord Jesus knew his man, for He knew all men, and it was the only way to deal frankly with this man.

Not many congregations or ministers or sessions or committees would deal in this way with a rich, moral young man today. Many would be only too glad to receive him and be careful not to ask him too many questions for fear of offending him. Some would be glad to take him in for the sake of his wealth and influence and ask him no questions. But our Lord saw the value of his soul rather than all else and never sought wealth or favor from any one. He came to give, not to receive, and the only way to obtain eternal life is to come empty, helpless, believing, and receive the Lord Jesus, in whom alone is life, as the free gift of God to every truly seeking soul (John i, 12; iii, 16; iv, 10; v, 24; vi, 47; Rom. iii, 24; vi, 23; I John ix, 11, 12). It is impossible to obtain it by works or wealth (Rom. iv, 5; Ps. xlix, 6, 7).

It is next to impossible for a self righteous or wealthy person to obtain eternal life, for it is so difficult for such to see or realize the need or emptiness in reference to things eternal. Yet Zaccheus was a rich man, and Saul of Tarsus was a self righteous man, and both became truly saved. "With God all things are possible."

Peter now comes to the front by saying: "Behold, we have forsaken all and followed Thee. What shall we have therefor?" Matthew, Mark and Luke each record the reply concerning the hundredfold now and in the world to come life. In Mark it reads, "for my sake and the gospels," but in Luke "for the kingdom of God's sake." The gospel is the way to the kingdom, so it is virtually the same. Mark also adds "with persecutions," and if we are wholly for God in this present time we will find it true that "all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution" (II Tim. iii, 12). In Matthew only do we find mention of the twelve thrones for the twelve apostles, but Luke records the same on a later occasion (Lu. xxii, 30).

MOSTLY CONTEMPLATIVE

By T. W. Chambliss.

"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself—And who is my neighbor?" —Luke.

The quotation is taken from the incident known to the Bible readers as the parable of the Good Samaritan and recorded in the Gospel according to Luke. A professional interpreter of the law of Moses, a noted scribe and teacher, questions the Gallilean Teacher. He had a theological trap, but the hoped-for prey walked through it and left him in it."—McLaren.

True religion does not consist in external acts, in prayers, in zeal for Christ, but truly consists of love to man. Love to God should be supreme. It should be active. It should be constant. Love to God in the heart of man forbids idolatry. Love to God in the heart of man leads the man to render obedience to the will of God. The strength—physical powers—will be gladly placed upon the altar of love. The intellect belongs to God and should be at his service. Love with all the heart—supreme affection. With all the soul—ready to endure With all the strength—labor for Him. With all the mind—thinking for Him. The entire life unreservedly given to God.

"Thy neighbor as thyself." Every one must recognize his neighbor's rights. Love of man is a proof of salvation. The fruit of God indwelling. By the love of men one is known to be saved. How quickly the teacher turned the tables on the captious questioner. He now stands condemned out of his mouth. The utter impossibility of salvation when there is no fruit in life. It is true there may be profession. There is also the possibility of small fruitage, but there will be some. There will be love for men when there is love for God.

The parable tells a true story. The story of life. Every life has its trials—its difficulty, its enemy, its accident, its disappointment. Every day brings to the observer the picture of the tired, weary, struggling soul in need. Many times the inclination is "to pass by on the other side." So many even "came and looked" and then "passed by." Sometimes those who are professedly religious look and pass by. Being in the line of religious work does not make one religious. The priest saw the sufferer as he lay at the roadside. But maybe the priest was in a hurry and other duties demanded his attention. Easy to find an excuse.

It is love for man everywhere even to the ends of the earth. It is bounded only by human necessity and suffering, it submits to no class or race lines. The love of God is no respecter of persons and the love man should have for man should likewise be universal. Priest and Levite were narrow and shallow—mere religionists—prejudiced and selfish and commercial. Very often men today are like them. It is very easy to express love for those in the class to which one belongs. A natural bond of sympathy between friends in communities—lifelong acquaintances and business associates. Willing to help them. But the stranger—well he is only a stranger.

True love is practical. The Samaritan went to him. Looks at him—yes, but with an eye to the possibilities of assistance. Looks—not out of curiosity, but looks for need. Practical love watches for opportunities of bringing a blessing to some weary one. The Damascus road offered an opportunity to the priest and he missed it. Then the Levite was given the same opportunity and he failed to grasp it. Along came the Samarian and he sees the opportunity. He accepts it. He binds up the wounds. He tenderly lifts and places the bruised body on his own breast and takes him to the place of refuge.

True love has a quick eye with which to discern the opportunity. True love has the tender heart yearning to offer sympathy. True love has the gentle hand with which to bind up the wounds. True love has willing feet and leads to the safe refuge. True love has sacrificial spirit—"whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee."

An old lady was one day carrying a heavy bundle along the crowded street. She was feeble and the load was heavy, and a crowd of boys passed her. Some laughed at her plight but one stepped out from the crowd and took the heavy bundle and carried it for her. He had the heart of love.

"Who is my neighbor?" For ages the world has asked the same question. "Every sufferer is my neighbor. Misery makes the whole world kin. The bruised, the bleeding, the sick, the tired, the loathsome—sometimes there is a feeling of aversion, but this is wrong. There should be pity—and more, there should be loving pity with desire to assist. Desire to assist should be followed by assistance rendered, prompt assistance. Delay often means keener suffering. "He gives twice who gives quickly." This man's life was slipping away. No time for investigation. Time for action. "Delay clogs the wheels of philanthropic organizations."

True love for fellow man is quick acting as instinct, for it is the instinct of grace. It reaches out a helping hand as a man would lift his arm to ward off a blow. It is not a mere spasm, but a steady flow of help, sympathy, self sacrifice, time, money, care—yes, and it even provides for the future contingency and all this for a stranger. Love that will do all this has a right to be heard and voices a message that is worthy to be received. Its example and spirit are a call to every one. A call, that is heeded. The teacher said, "Go thou and do likewise."

The world is watching for the exemplification of the parable of the Good Samaritan in these days. The loving heart towards God and the heart filled of love towards man. The life in which God is supreme ruler and which is wholly given to the sympathetic benefaction of mankind. Christ is man's Good Samaritan and has compassion on every man and woman. "Not to be ministered into but to minister," should describe the believer also. One's neighbor is anyone anywhere who is in need of a neighborly service.

"A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; as I have loved you."

SIMMONS COMMENDS RIVER AND HARBOR APPROPRIATION BILL

"In My Judgment, the Most Comprehensive Measure Formulated for the Development of the Waterways of the United States That Has Been Reported Out of the Senate Committee on Commerce for Years."

Washington, D. C., June 13.—"The river and harbor appropriation bill, which will be reported to the Senate in a few days, is, in my judgment, the most comprehensive measure formulated for the development of the waterways of the United States that has been reported out of the Senate committee on Commerce for many years," said Senator F. M. Simmons, of North Carolina, acting chairman of that committee and chairman of the Finance Committee, who, with Oscar W. Underwood of the House committee on Ways and Means, is co-author of the Underwood-Simmons tariff bill.

"While the present river and harbor bill may show an increase over last year's bill to the extent of probably three millions of dollars, the Senate bill has brought up to date the recommendations of the engineers of the army which were not available when the House committee on Rivers and Harbors had the bill under consideration. This necessarily follows, for the House originates all bills appropriating revenues for the conduct of the government.

"The House bill", continued Senator Simmons, "came to the Commerce Committee of the Senate carrying a total in cash of $38,408,000. The Senate added in cash appropriations $3,922,000, making a total of $43,330,000. Under contract authorizations, the House provided four millions, in round numbers, and the Senate has added to that $6,352,000, making a total in contract authorization in the present bill of $10,352,600. While the Senate bill is upwards of $53,000,000 as against the House bill of $43,000,000, making the Senate appear as having raised the House upwards of ten millions of dollars, the fact remains that there are two continuing contracts provided in the Senate bill aggregating about $6,000,000 which should not be counted against the bill itself because the amounts necessary for these continuing contracts will be taken care of from year to year in the sundry civil bill.

"To the lay mind, the amount of money appropriated for the development of the waterways and harbors of the United States may seem large, and yet, it is small when the needs of the country, for better facilities in transportation, are taken into consideration. It must not be forgotten in this connection that the requirements of commerce are greater than they ever were before; there are more people in the nation asking cheaper freights than there were a decade ago, and the instrumentalities for reducing rates and moving freights are being demanded to a larger extent than ever before.

"The Commerce Committee has added nothing to the House bill except on the recommendation of the board of engineers of the United States Army charged with river and harbor work, and every dollar expended under it will result in cheaper freights to the people of the Union.

"The Senate bill creates three continuing contracts, two on the Pacific coast—Los Angeles, to cost $426,000, the mouth of the Columbia in Oregon, $4,100,000, and one on the Atlantic coast, Cape Lookout harbor of refuge in North Carolina, $1,826,600. These continuing contracts were made upon the recommendations of the board of engineers of the army, upon the theory that there would be a very great saving to the government—fully $300,000 on Cape Lookout and $350,000 to $500,000 on the Columbia—if legislation was enacted to take these two projects out of the annual appropriation class and make direct contracts with responsible persons for their completion within a specified time."

The River and Harbor appropriation bill as it will be reported to the Senate immediately after the bill repealing the free tolls provision of the Panama Canal Act is out of the way, will show the following changes over the House bill:

Improvement of Boston harbor to 40 feet, a new project, $400,000.

Narrows of Lake Champlain between New York and Vermont, $300,000.

Malden river, Mass., $80,000, a balance of an old appropriation, now made available.

Improving harbor, Bridgeport, Conn., $111,300, and an old balance of $67,000, making a total of $178,300.

Chesapeake and Delaware canal: The Senate committee on Commerce raises the House appropriation of $1,300,000 to $2,250,000 to agree with Agnus Commission report, the special report of the board of engineers and the report of the Coast and Insular Survey committee, of which Senator Saulsbury of Delaware is chairman.

Harbor of Refuge, Cape Lookout, House appropriation of $300,000, cash appropriation, stands, and the Senate bill adds a continuing contract provision for $1,826,600.

Pensacola and Mobile waterway, $800,000, the project to start with a cash appropriation of $50,000.

Creates a board of three officers of engineer corps to examine and appraise the work and franchises of the East Coast Canal, St. Johns to Key West, Fla., with a view to purchase.

The bill increases the appropriation for Black Warrior, Warrior and Tombigbee rivers from $500,000 to $750,000.

Mobile Bay to Mississippi river to cost $468,000 an appropriation of $25,000 is made. From the Mississippi river to Bayou Teche, $100,000.

Galveston channel is expressly adopted in the Senate bill, but the appropriation is reduced from $1,185,000 to $100,000 and none of this money can be used until all the conditions of the engineers' report are complied with, which includes the quieting of title on the San Jacinto reservation in Texas and the purchase of other lands necessary to the beginning of work; the provision being that the government is expressly exempted from any expense whatsoever in connection therewith.

Waterway, Galveston-Sabine river, $150,000. This includes the entire inland waterway from St. Georges Sound, Fla., to the Rio Grande, with the exception of Section 12; Corpus Christi Bay to Baffins Bay, for which the House bill appropriates $80,000, but which is cut out by the Senate for the reason that the section provided for in the bill was not the section contemplated by the report of the engineers.

Two additional locks on the Brazos, $250,000.

For the Red River of the South, the House bill failed to make an appropriation, but the Senate bill, upon recommendation of the engineers, gives the project $100,000.

Ouachita river in Arkansas and Louisiana had an estimate from the engineers of $664,000, which they stated was needed. The House gave $194,000, and now the Senate raises the amount to $664,000.

Tennessee river—the House asked for $550,000 for this project, being $50,000 more than estimated, but the engineers came in with a supplemental estimate for $930,000. The Senate bill raises the amount from $550,000 to $930,000.

The Tennessee river, which includes the old Muscle Shoals project between Brown's Island and Florence, Ala., is, upon recommendation of the board of engineers, given $150,000 for the completion of detailed surveys, foundation borings and preparation of plans for this section of river, combined with the development of water power. But the Senate bill distinctly disavows any adoption of the project.

Cut-off across Princess Point, Michigan, $138,000.

Grand Calumet river—The Gary Land Company and the Indiana Steel Company straightened the stream and built their plant on the old bed of the river. The engineers say the new stream is infinitely better than the old stream, and the Senate bill vests the title to these lands in the companies mentioned. This simply quiets title to the land, which approximates 47 acres.

The Mississippi River Commission requested that they be given $7,000,000 when the matter was before the House committee on Rivers and Harbors. The board of engineers thought that the commission could get along with $6,000,000 and so recommended. The House bill, however, gave the commission $7,000,000. Now, in the Senate bill, the amount is raised to $8,000,000; an increase of $1,000,000.

The Senate bill increases the salaries of the civilian members of the Mississippi river commission from $3,000 to $5,000. Both Senate and House agree to the extension of the jurisdiction of the Mississippi river commission from its northern limit, the mouth of the Ohio, to Rock Island, Ill., and the Senate provides for a survey of the Atchafalaya river with a view to placing it under the Mississippi river commission.

Missouri river above Kansas City—The House gave $300,000; the Senate bill raises it to $350,000, permitting $250,000 of the amount to be used for revetment purposes.

Los Angeles harbor—The Senate gave $200,000 cash and a continuing contract for $426,000, making $626,000 in all.

Siuslaw river, Oregon, $112,000; the citizens of Siuslaw to raise an equal amount.

Mouth of Columbia—The House bill gave $1,000,000; the Senate bill ratifies this appropriation and places the whole under continuing contract for $4,400,000.

Gray's harbor, Washington, $110,000.

Skagit river, Washington, $30,000; and cuts out Willapa river harbor, $100,000.

AN ORGANIZATION NEEDED.

Constitutional Amendments in Danger from Apathy?

(Greensboro News.)

The necessity has suddenly arisen for some organization to prosecute a campaign for the ratification of the constitutional amendments this fall. The Democratic party seems to have thrown them overboard.

Here is an opportunity for the press of the State. If there should be a general representation of that body at the convention at Wilmington it would be a comparatively simple matter for a plan to be devised that would accomplish much toward the ratification of all the amendments. First, the members would pledge themselves to give in their papers all the space they could conveniently give, from that time until the election. Second, a propaganda committee would be formed that would keep all the papers regularly supplied with "copy" setting forth the nature of each of the amendments, the necessity for it, the logic and the wisdom of it. Of course, all the thinking men of the State have familiarized themselves, in a general way, with the amendments; one of the necessary things, however, is to keep them before the people's minds until election day.

The campaign might be conducted by the commercial organizations of the State. There is no State organization of these bodies, but there should be; and one might be formed for this especial purpose. Inasmuch as the movement for taxation reform, which is the basis of the whole matter, was started by the board of trade of one of our cities, it would be peculiarly appropriate for the boards of trade and chambers of commerce to carry it to a successful conclusion.

There are elements of weakness in both these plans, we readily admit; but the party organization apparently intends to do nothing; there is no other machinery upon which the work would naturally devolve; and unless there is some organized effort the probability is that the really important amendments will be defeated. The Democrats say they are in favor of the six months school term amendment, but on the subject of where the money is to come from they maintain a dignified silence.

The defection of the "machine" is going to be felt. The political party organization, as it exists in America and nowhere else on earth, is full of iniquity; but it has its uses, and in fact has been evolved to meet an actual need. The way to have elections carry is to get behind them a force that can reach to the polls. The only way to guarantee the ratification of the amendments would be to induce the men in control of the Democratic party to stop "clubbing" the "progressives" long enough to include the amendments in the programme.

You can send a telegram to a man if you know his address—but you can send your message to him in a Want Ad. even if you know neither his name nor address and be practically certain that it will reach him.

The blockading of Tampico caused a new crisis in the Mexican situation early in the week, and it was thought probable that the incident would lead to war betweenthe United States and Mexico.

Nation-wide prohibition through a constitutional amendment was considered Wednesday at a meeting of the House Rules committee. It is predicted that Congress will act on this measure at this session.

The Supreme Court of the United States has upheld the Inter-State Commerce Commission's orders in the Shreveport rate case, thus placing inter-State railroads more under the commission and less under State commissions.

It is believed the Mexican Constitutionalists will participate in some way in the mediation conference at Niagara Falls. The American and Mexican plans for the pacification of Mexico submitted to the A. B. C. mediators differ in minor details. Mexico will not be asked by the United States to pay war indemnity.

General Huerta rescinded the order which he had made for a blockade of Tampico. An understanding may have been reached by which the Constitutionalists would not receive further shipments of arms at Tampico. The American commissioners at Niagara Falls early in the week presented a peace plan which they had drafted.

Railroad communication between Vera Cruz and Mexico City is menaced by Constitutionalist forces. The United States will not consent to any method of transition from the Huerta regime to the proposed new Mexican government that can be construed as recognition of Huerta's administration. The A. B. C. mediators insisted that Huerta be permitted to make the appointment of the man agreed on at Niagara Falls for provisional president.

The merchant whose advertising is so good that his competitor's wife feels half inclined to deal with him is on the straight road to fortune.

Brief News Stories of The Carolinas

Young is again warning the people of the State against the purchase of stocks, bonds, contracts for lots and other forms of investment from agents or strangers, and says that in spite of all his warnings many people are being continually imposed upon in making such purchases.

The varied fruit and farm products of "Nature's Garden Spot," that section of the sunny South traversed by the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, will again be exhibited the coming fall in the larger fairs to be held in the States of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York and perhaps at a number of the important fairs in the West.

T. D. Warren, chairman of the State Democratic executive committee, has issued a call for a meeting of that body to be held in Raleigh on the evening of Friday, June 26th, at 8:30 o'clock. The purpose of this meeting is to elect a chairman and secretary and to transact other business. The protest of Hon. Chas. R. Thomas will be heard.

In an opinion by Judge Pritchard, the Federal Circuit court of appeals held that the United States government is not entitled to recover from the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company for the value of a quantity of diamonds worth $6,200, which were lost in the wreck of a mail car at Lucama, N. C., in 1904.

Dr. F. P. Venable, former president of the University of North Carolina, has been in Washington spending a few days with Dr. Holmes, director of the bureau of mines. It is understood from one who has the confidence of Dr. Venable that he has decided to accept the chair of chemistry which has been tendered him.

A climax to a romance that began in sunny Italy several years ago was reached at Bowden on Saturday when Mr. John DeLuca and Miss Rosa Laressita were married. The ceremony was performed by a Catholic priest in the presence of a large gathering of their countrymen. After the ceremony the event was celebrated in the style customary to their fatherland.

Repeal of the Panama canal tolls exemption for American coastwise shipping passed the Senate Thursday night by a vote of 50 to 35. The measuse went back to the House, and that body accepted the Simmons-Norris amendment specifically reserving all rights the United States may have under the Hay-Pauncefote treaty and passed the bill Friday.

Members of the Corporation Commission went Monday to Charlotte for the purpose of appearing before the special examiner for the Interstate Commerce Commission, Hon. Richard T. Eddy, in a hearing on the proposed general reduction of freight rates on coal into the whole southeastern territory, including North Carolina.

With a deep gash in his forehead, Cecil C. Wyche, a young attorney, floor leader for Governor Cole Blease's supporters in the House of Representatives, appeared in a dazed condition at a hospital in Spartanburg Wednesday morning. When his wound had been dressed he desired to leave, but he was so weak that the physicians prevailed on him to remain in the hospital a few days.

Governor Craig announces the appointment of the State Board of Elections as follows: Wilson G. Lamb, Williamston; R. C. Claywell, Morganton; J. B. Underwood, Fayetteville; W. J. Davis, Hendersonville, and Clarence Call, Wilkesboro. Colonel Lamb continues chairman of the board. Mr. Claywell has served several terms as secretary. Mr. Call represents the Republicans and Mr. Davis the Bull Moose party.

An important point in plans for the pacification of Mexico was gained by the United States Thursday through the conciliatory spirit displayed by the Mexican delegation. In a full conference of the mediators and the delegates of both countries it was agreed that the transfer of authority from the present administration to the new provisional government should be accomplished in some other way than by General Huerta's appointment of a minister of foreign affairs to succeed to the provisional presidency.

The degree of bachelor of arts was awarded 66 graduates of Trinity College Wednesday, following the commencement address by Dean LeBaron Russell Briggs, of Harvard University. The degree of master of arts was conferred on three candidates. The honorary degree of doctor of divinity was conferred on Rev. Plato T. Durham, Michael Bradshaw, J. L. McLarty and Gilbert T. Rowe. The board of trustees had voted the degree of doctor of laws to Senator Lee S. Overman, but as he was detained in Washington, conferring this degree was postponed till a later date when he comes to Durham.

Salisbury was selected by the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, for next meeting place in warm competition with Waynesville. The following officers were elected during the annual meeting at Durham: Grand Chancellor, F. G. Baird, Charlotte; Grand Vice Chancellor, A. H. Holland, Winston; Grand Prelate, Rev. R. B. Owen, Rocky Mount; Grand Keeper of Records and Seal, W. T. Holowell, Goldsboro; Grand Master of Exchequer, John C. Mills, Rutherfordton; Grand Master at Arms, G. W. Brittain, Reidsville; Grand Inner Guard, W. L. Stamey, High Point; Grand Outer Guard, C. G. Sasser, Mount Olive.

With 1,200 Confederate veterans and a thousand or more Daughters of the Confederacy taking part, along with thousands of people generally, the ceremonies for the unveiling of the splendid monument to the North Carolina Women of the Confederacy given to the State by the lamented Ashley Horne, of Clayton, were carried out most successfully Wednesday. The veterans were in annual reunion and joined in fine tribute to the women of the South exemplified in the magnificent gift to the State that testifies the appreciation of Col. Horne and the State for the sacrifices they made for the "Lost Cause."

SOPHONISBA AT HER MIRROR.

"Cabiria", the greatest motion picture ever presented, is an 11-reel spectacular drama by the greatest living Italian poet and author, D'Annunzio, the Italian Shakespeare.

Two years were devoted to the preparation and staging of this stupendous production. Expense was the last consideration. To filmitize the product of D'Annunzio's wonderful imagination was no small task, but the magnificent results achieved amply repaid those daring producers, for they have just refused an offer to sell the rights of "Cabiria" for $250,000. The photoplay is meeting with the most remarkable success of any production ever put before the public, both for its splendid acting and beautiful scenic effects. It is full of striking situations from end to end, holding one in almost breathless amazement.

In the accompanying picture we see the beautiful Carthegenion princess at her mirror, the mirror being a little lake of clear water in her palace. This scene is one of intense beauty, and is one of the many fascinating scenes in the production.

To say the least, "Cabiria" is creating a sensation at the Knickerbocker Theatre, New York, where crowds are daily turned away, with the S. O. R. sign in evidence.

This great spectacle is the means, too, of demonstrating that the lady who enacts the part of the Princess, Itala Manzini, is probably at this moment the greatest woman motion picture artist in the world.

The Week Locally

The County Commissioners of New Hanover refused to concur with the City Council in their resolution, enacted several weeks ago, suggesting that the incinerating plant be turned over to the sole management of the city of Wilmington.

With Chairman Willard presiding and all members present, the monthly meeting of the Board of Health was held Tuesday, at which time the monthly reports of the different departmental officers were received and a number of other matters given consideration.

The racing season of the Carolina Yacht Club for this summer will open Saturday afternoon, June 20, when at 5 o'clock the starting gun will be fired for the first race in the Class A series for the Jones-Walters trophy and the club trophy, awarded to the winners of first and second places in this series each year.

The Pearsall Memorial Presbyterian church was organized in East Wilmington Sunday night, starting with a membership of 27 and an active Sunday school and Christian Endeavor Society. The organization was perfected by a commission appointed at the last meeting of Presbytery, composed of Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, chairman; Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells and Mr. W. H. Sprunt.

The financial report of Mr. J. A. Orrell, county treasurer and auditor, submitted to the Board of Commissioners at an adjourned session Monday afternoon, shows that during the month of May the collections amounted to $2,962.14 and the total disbursements were $11,642.01, leaving a balance of $64,202.59 on June 1. The balance on May 1 was $72,882.46.

A comprehensive resume of the work and activities of the Wilmington police department is contained in the annual report of Chief N. J. Williams, for the fiscal year ending June 1st, which was submitted to City Council at the weekly meeting Wednesday, and which, in addition to the usual statistics, contains some interesting facts and comment by the chief upon the work of the department.

The Board of County Commissioners at the adjourned regular session Monday afternoon adopted a resolution expressing their pleasure at the action of the council in approving the health budget and declaring that they were ready to ask the surgeon-general of the United States public health service to name the third member of the investigating committee, as soon as the matter was brought to their attention as provided for in the resolution adopted by the citizens' committee.

The contract for the erection of the new Hemenway school building on the site of the old structure on Fifth street, was awarded to Mr. W. P. Rose, of Goldsboro, Wednesday afternoon at the regular monthly meeting of the County Board of Education. His bid was $33,550, the lowest submitted. There were seven bidders in all and the figures were remarkably close. Work will begin on the new edifice within a few days and it is hoped to have it in readiness for the children when school opens next fall.

City Council, in regular weekly session, passed a resolution granting the request of Mr. R. A. Parsley and others for the construction of a 30-foot improved street through Hilton; passed another resolution instructing the treasurer to deduct from the appropriation for the health department the amount of $750.60, the proportion contributed by the city of an unexpended balance of $1,000.83 remaining in the bank to the credit of the health department at the end of the past fiscal year; decided to immediately improve Rankin street from 11th to 15th, leading to the colored cemetery; received the annual report of Chief N. J. Williams, of the police department; received a petition asking an increase of 25 cents a day in the pay of the policemen, and considered a number of other matters of less importance.

A WILMINGTON MERCHANT SPEAKS

L. H. Partin, of 505 Chestnut St., Tells a Story of Interest to Wilmington Residents.

We all know Mr. Partin and can rely on his word. This is the kind of proof we want nowadays, proof from someone we know and esteem. Mr. Partin's story is fraught with importance to all Wilmington people who are afflicted with the many ills that come with a bad back and disordered kidneys. Here's the story in his own words:

"My back was weak and lame," says Mr. Partin, "and I had acute pains across my loins. The secretions from my kidneys were highly colored and filled with sediment and caused me much distress when being voided. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I got a box from Bellamy's Drug Store and began using them according to directions. They acted just as represented and drove away all the symptoms of my complaint. I am pleased to confirm the former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Partin had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Blood Troubles Are Often Hard to Locate

Catarrh, for Example May Be the Cause of Very Serious Illness.

A Slight Trouble Often Brings Serious Blood Disorders.

A chronic cold means something wrong constitutionally. Pimples mean bad blood. Rheumatism means faulty elimination. These and a hundred other symptoms are easily recognized, but where is the trouble. Where is it located? What is wrong with the bodily machine?

If you will go into any first class store and get a bottle of S. S. S. you are on the way to getting rid of those conditions that cause sickness and disease. But don't let anyone work off that old trick of something "Just as good."

S. S. S. is taken into the blood just as naturally as the most nourishing food. It spreads its influence over every organ in the body, comes through all the veins and arteries, enables all mucous surfaces to exchange inflammatory acids and other irritating substances for arterial elements that effectually cleanse the system and thus put an end to all pollution. S. S. S. cleans out the stomach of mucous accumulations, enables only pure, blood-making materials to enter the intestines, combines with these foods elements to enter the circulation, and in less than an hour is at work throughout the body in the process of purification.

You will soon realize its wonderful influence by the absence of headache, a steadily improved condition of the skin, and a sense of bodily relief that proves how completely the entire system was loaded with impurities.

You will find S. S. S. on sale at all drug stores. It is a remarkable remedy for any and all blood affections, such as eczema, rash, lupus, tetter, psoriasis, boils, and all other diseased conditions of the blood. For special advice on any blood disease write to The Swift Specific Co., 223 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

Do not trifle with substitutes, imitations or any of the horde of "Just as good" Counterfeits of S. S. S.

COTTON MARKET UNSETTLED

Prices Eased Off Under a Renewal of Old Crop Liquidation—Close Was Steady.

New York, June 13.—The cotton market was unsettled today with prices easing off under a renewal of old crop liquidation and reports of good showers in the Carolinas. The close was steady but at a net loss of 3 to 8 points. There were quite a good many over-night selling orders at the start and the opening was at a decline of 8 to 11 points on the old crop and of 1 to 4 points on new crop deliveries. Relatively weak cables encouraged the selling movement but offerings were well taken owing to prospects for continued hot weather over the greater part of the South. Old crop positions rallied to about last night's closing figures, while the new crop sold four or five points net higher on covering and fresh buying for long account. This advance encountered increased selling pressure, however, and some of the same brokers who had ben vry heavy sellers late yesterday on the Chicago bank news were sellers again.

There was also a good deal of scattered realizing for over the week-end while better weather reports from the Carolinas have inspired some local pressure. The market broke sharply with old crop months selling 11 to 12 points under yesterday's closing figures, while later deliveries showed net losses of 5 to 6 points. A slight rally followed on covering but the market closed within a point or two of the lowest on new crop positions.

The supply and distribution figures of the census bureau may have inspired some of the old crop selling. Detailed weather reports showed good showers in North Carolina and fair showers in Georgia, Alabama and Louisiana, but 49 stations east of the river showed maximum temperatures of 100 degrees or over.

Cotton futures closed steady.

WEEKLY DRY GOODS REVIEW.

Cotton Goods Markets Have Strengthened During the Week.

New York, June 13.—Cotton goods markets have strengthened and broadened during the week. The demand from the manufacturing trades, converters, and some of the jebbers has been of a steady character.

Bag manufacturers have bought goods freely. Mills are declining considerable business because prices are lower than they think are warranted by the costs of production. Curtailment of production plans are being adopted by various mills when orders expire and during the current cotton year the disposition is to confine operations to firm orders.

There has been an improvement in the business offered from the grain growing States from jobbers and retailers. Prices have been named on bleached cottons for fall. One line that was reduced 1-4c a yard was placed at value the following day. Other lines were priced on the level of last season or advanced. Wide sheetings have been advanced 2 1-2 per cent. Printed wash goods have been in active demand from jobbers and printers' stocks have been cleaned up. White goods are selling more freely. Prices are as follows:

Print cloths, 28 inch 64x64s 3 3-4c; 64x60s 3 1-2; 38 1-2 inch 64x64s 5 1-4; brown sheetings, Southern standards 8; denims 9 ounce 14; tickings, 8 ounce 14 1-2; prints, standard 5 1-4; staple ginghams 6 1-4; dress ginghams 9 3-4.

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET.

Liverpool, June 13.—Spot, easier; good middling, 8.38; middling, 7.84; low middling, 7.36.

Sales, 5,000; speculation and export 7.00. Receipts, 8,000. Futures, barely steady. June, 7.47½; June-July, 7.28¾; July-August, 7.28½; August-September, 7.14; October-November, 6.80; December-January 6.71; January-February, 6.70½; March-April, 6.72.

NAVAL STORES.

Savannah June 13.—Turpentine, firm, at 45½@46; sales, 3,35; receipts, 7.78; shipments, 2,863; stocks, 16,930.

Rosin—Firm. Sales, 2,134; receipts, 1,822; shipments, 1,822; stocks, 99,883. Quote: A, B, 3.80; C, D, 4.10; E, F, 4.15; G, H, 4.20; I, 4.25; K 4.50; M, 4.85; N, 5.50; W G, 5.90; W W, 6.05.

DECREASE IN RESERVE FUND.

New York, June 13.—The statement of the actual condition of clearing house banks and trust companies for the week shows that they hold $42,312,200 reserve in excess of legal requirements. This is a decrease of $9,918,700 from last week.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON MARKET

Had Downward Tendency During the Week-End Session as Result of Fairly Good Rains.

New Orleans, June 13.—The cotton market had a downward tendency on the week-end session as the result of fairly good rains in portions of the eastern belt and the falling off in consumption of cotton by American mills during May as compared with the same month last year. Liberal buying orders from the long side met the decline and kept the market steady, but offerings were sufficient to put prices 4 to 6 points under yesterday's finals. The clase was at a net loss of 2 to 5 points. A flurry of selling around the opening called forth heavy buying orders said to come from prominent interests. The forecast of fair weather for the belt, except for thunder showers in the Carolinas, was a help to the long side for a while, but the detailed reports, showing rain at nine of the ten stations in the Wilmington district and scattered showers elsewhere in the East, gave bears the hope that the drouth was at last to be ended.

These offerings finally broke the market. Cotton futures closed steady. July 13.57; August 13.45; October 12.76; December 12.76; January 12.77; March 12.86. Spot cotton quiet, unchanged. Middling 13 15-16; sales on the spot 451; to arrive, none.

TRADING IN STOCKS QUIET

Seldom Has Wall Street Seen Six Successive Days So Dull As Past Week.

New York, June 13.—The week's trading in stocks came to an end today as quietly as it began. Seldom has Wall Street seen six successive days in which speculative interest was at a lower ebb. Less than 30,000 shares were dealt in today. At the opening prices eased off. The only apparent reason was the lower range of quotations from London. While the downward movement was general, it was of small proportions. Later demand expanded and the list made up its opening losses. At the end of the day changes were trivial.

The week's record total of gold engagements for export was increased today by the booking of $4,000,000.

It became known also that arrangements had been made tentatively for engagement of $4,000,000 or $5,000,000 on Monday. Sterling exchange, after holding at abnormally high figures for sometime, weakened today.

The bank statement showed the expected cash loss as a result of the gold movement, amounting to $7,690,000.

The weekly trade reviews were in keeping with the more optimistic sentiment which has been evident of late.

The doubtful outlook for payment of the July interest on St. Louis and San Francisco refunding 4s caused active selling of the San Francisco bonds which sagged to 68 1-2. This is a loss of 4 1-2 on the week. Speculation in bonds was relatively more active than in stocks, with higher prices for investment issues.

Total sales par value $982,000. United States bonds unchanged on call on the week.

Scown suit. The act granted limited suffrage to all women citizens of Illinois by permitting them to vote for statutory officers and upon propositions presented to the Illinois electorate.

State and other officers named in the Illinois constitution were excepted rom the act, which, however, left the women free to vote for municipal officers and for township officials.

Under the act women in every part of the State participated in the Spring elections and in the township and in municipal local option elections were instrumental in voting out of existence approximately one thousand saloons.

A dissenting opinion, which contended that the granting to women of the right to vote is in violation of the State constitution, was submitted.

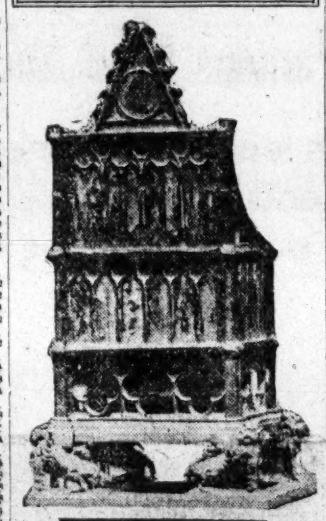
Backers of Militants May Be Arrested Yet



CORONATION CHAIR WESTMINSTER ABBEY.

London, June 13.—Steps will probably be taken to arrest those who contribute funds to the militants as a result of the militant bomb being set off under the coronation chair in Westminster Abbey. This chair is one of England's most precious relics, for all of its rulers have been crowned in it.

York. He conferred with Luis Cabrera, another of the probable delegates and also with Rafael Zubaran, chief agent of Carranza here. Charles A. Douglas, one of Carranza's counsel here, discussed the situation with Secretary Bryan. r. Douglas said he had received no late commnications from Carranza regarding participation in the mediation conference.

In view of the declaration from the mediators that Constitutionalists would not be officially received unless fighting in Mexico ceased, the general conclusion here is that whatever participation Carranza's men may make, will be entirely informal.

Notwithstanding the press reports of sanguinary battles in the neighborhood of Zacatacas in Central Mexico, and at Mazatlan on the west coast, the State Department had no news from any of its agencies that could be nade public. However, it is gathered from such information as is at hand that the Constitutionalists are renewing their attacks on the Federal garrisons at many widely separated points, so fiercely and simultaneously as to suggest the belief that they are acting under a general order from Carranza to rush the campaign against Mexico City to a conclusion regardless of its cost in killed and wounded.

Women Arrested.

Lucy Armstrong, colored, and Ruth Henshaw, white, were arrested last night by Constable John H. Davis on charges of violating the prohibition law. Lucy Armstrong was locked up, but the Henshaw woman gave bond for her appearance. The cases will come up before Justice Harriss tomorrow at noon.

The Scown suit, filed in the Superior court in Chicago by William J. Scown as the taxpayer, demanded the tax collectors of that county be forbidden to occur expense in providing facilities for women voting at the February primaries in 1914 on the ground that the woman suffrage act passed by the last Legislature was unconstitution and void.

At the primary elections last spring thousands of women voted.

DEATH WARRANTS SIGNED

Grady Lane and Jim Cameron to Die July 10—Ert Lance July 17th. at Raleigh.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 13.—According to death warrants just signed by Governor Craig,two condemned criminals, Grady Lane and Jim Cameron, both negroes, are to die in the electric chair here July 10, and another, Ert Lance, also a negro, is to die July 17th. Jim Cameron was sentenced in Moore county for the murder of John Blue, a saw mill man, whom he shot in the latter's commissary under such circumstances that there is said to be no likelihood for even a request for commutation of sentence to come up to the Governor.

It is understood that there will be an effort to get a commutation for Grady Lane, the other murderer under sentence to die July 10th. He killed George McCain in a swamp near Aberdeen in a gambling and robbery escapade.

Ert Lance, the Henderson county criminal, sentenced to die July 17th, is to have a hearing as to commutation. He was convicted of a criminal outrage on Mrs. Carolina Crook, there being, it is claimed, circumstances that will tend to justify executive clemency as the day of the execution approaches.

Another execution that is set and has not gone through the Supreme court or reached the Governor in any way, is that of Sid Finger, sentenced in Rowan county for the murder of Preston Lyerly, at Barber's Junction. No executive interference being likely in this case.

with the black banner of the Peasants' League.

Newspapers were burned the instant they reached these towns in order to prevent the people from learning the falsity of the reports that King Victor Emmanuel had fled to Montenegro, that the revolution had swept the entire peninsula and that the troops had joined the people. In some cases the troops were forced to fire to restore order and several fatalities were recorded.

One of the most violent excesses occurred at the village of Sant 'Ggata near Lugo, where rioters attacked the city hall, burned the church and after forcing the priest to give the mob all the wine in the church cellars, stripped him, burning his cassock in the public square and forced him to accompany them.

Deputy Monti-Guarnieri, of Pesaro, which lies between Rimini and Ancona, reache the Chamber of Deputies today with a thrilling tale of his escape from his home. He was forced to walk part of the way to Rome. The train on which he was traveling was halted at Falconara by a frenzied mob, shouting for revolution. Residents were terrified because of lack of protection.

At the station of San Querici, the station master and his clerks were threatened with death if they attempted to prevent the destruction of the station and the flag stand. Women and children lay across the tracks to prevent trains from passing.

How many persons have been killed or wounded cannot be estimated but reports have been received from various points indicating constant clashes between revolutionists and soldiers.

SECEDERS ATTACK UNION LABORERS

fusal was a protest against heavy assessments levied for support of the strike in Michigan by the Western Federation of Miners.

They attacked the marchers and hurled rocks at President Bert Riley, of the Butte Union and his subordinate officials. The latter were rescued by the police and found shelter in the sheriff's office.

The mob then attacked Miners' Union hall, wrecked its furniture, destroyed the ballot boxes holding the votes cast in a recent Union election and carried off the books.

Acting Mayor Curran was set upon when he tried to address the rioters and persuade them to refrain from further destruction of property.

The rioters continued their demonstration in the vicinity of the sheriff's office where all of the Union officials remained in hiding.

BAD WRECK ON SOUTHERN EARLY THIS MORNING.

Derailment of Passenger Train Caused Death of Engineer and Fireman.

Danville, Va., June 14.—Engineer John Wingate of Danville, and Fireman Pickard, of the Southern Railway, train No. 29, bound from New York to Birmingham, Ala., were killed in a derailment at Sadler, N. C., about 15 miles south of here this morning.

The wreck occurred at 12:38 and was caused by the engine splitting a switch. The engine left the track and rolled down an embankment for 10 feet or more. Fireman Pickard was instantly killed and his body has not yet been recovered from beneath the wreckage. Wingate was removed from the debris badly scalded and otherwise injured and died about 1 A. M. All of the coaches except the last three left the track, but no passengers or other members of the crew are reported injured. A hospital corps was rushed to the scene from Reidsville, N. C., and wrecking crews sent from Monroe, Va., and Spencer, N. C.

Ran at Officer With Knife.

J. R. Green, Jr., a white man, raised considerable racket early this morning in Racket Store alley near Front and Orange streets, and when Policeman R. J. Thompson went to see what was the matter Green is said to have rushed at the officer with a knife. The officer knocked Green down with his club and rendered him slightly unconscious for a while. He was taken to the James Walker Memorial Hospital for treatment, though his injury was not serious. He was later locked up on a charge of being drunk and disorderly and with assault with a deadly weapon.

WAR IS CERTAIN TO COME.

Greece and Turkey Soon to be at Each Other's Throats Again.

Athens, June 13.—The war between Greece and Turkey is inevitable, according to the newspaper Hestia, which largely voices Greek public opinions. It is reported there have been several encounters between Turks and Christians in the Asiatic Literal and that the Turks are concentrating arms and ammunition at various points.

Several sailing vessels with Greek refugees aboard, it is reported, have been captured by Turks.

Portland, Ore., June 13.—Three of the four balloons that left Portland Thursday on a long distance race were accounted for tonight, but the Springfield still was unreported. The Kansas City III landed safely in Marion county, Ore., 78 miles from Portland, yesterday, it was reported tonight.
